Alice Bliss Events | Laura Harrington Books

Alice is in many ways a different girl by story's end. The novel closes with a lovely image that theatrically arcs back to the opening scene. It feels curmudgeonly to fault Harrington's earnest, uplifting (and apolitical) approach to this topical subject, but the surfeit of sensitivity weakens its impact and the reader's interest.

Alice Bliss by Laura Harrington | United for Libraries

Laura Harrington's first novel, based on a play, takes us into the mind and heart of Alice Bliss, a 15 year old whose father ships out to Iraq in 2006. Part coming of age story, part exploration of family life in difficult times, the story takes on a contemporary problem head on and makes us see life as Alice sees it.

Alice Bliss by Laura Harrington Review and Q & A - Escape

Alice Bliss by Laura Harrington is about a reality that I am fortunate enough to not have experienced, but one that I feel is all too common for many families these days. Friends, I was a tad bit nervous before starting Alice Bliss because it is an adult book, however, it was immensely readable and quite the emotional experience.
