this handbook uses a comprehensive study of political institutions social movements and external pressures to offer nuanced study of politics in the middle east foremost scholars on the middle east examine key themes such as political change regional rivalry and authoritarianism making this collection very timely and relevant as an authoritative source the quest for an inclusive and independent state has been at the center of the palestinian national struggle for a very long time this book critically reexamines this quest by exploring the meaning of palestinian statehood and the challenges that face alternative models to it today rethinking statehood in palestine gives prominence to a young set of diverse palestinian scholars both men and women to show how notions of citizenship sovereignty and nationhood are being currently rethought within the broader context of decolonization bringing forth critical and multifaceted engagements with what palestinian self determination entails within a larger regional context this groundbreaking book sets the terms of debate for the future of palestine beyond partition since the 1993 oslo accords the occupied palestinian territory has been the subject of extensive international peacebuilding and statebuilding efforts coordinated by western donor states and international finance institutions despite their failure to yield peace or palestinian statehood the role of these organisations in the israeli palestinian conflict is generally overlooked owing to their depiction as tertiary actors engaged in technical missions in palestine ltd toufic haddad explores how neoliberal frameworks have shaped and informed the common understandings of international israeli and palestinian interactions throughout the oslo peace process drawing upon more than 20 years of policy literature field based interviews and recently declassified or leaked documents he details how these frameworks have led to struggles over influencing palestinian political and economic behaviour and attempts to mould the class character of palestinian society and its leadership a dystopian vision of palestine emerges as the by product of this complex asymmetrical interaction where nationalism neo colonialism and disaster capitalism both intersect and diverge this book is essential for students and scholars interested in middle east studies arab israeli politics and international development this is an open access title available under the terms of a cc by nc nd 4 0 international licence it is free to read at oxford scholarship online and offered as a free pdf download from oup and selected open access locations borderlands europe and the mediterranean middle east proposes a profound rethink of the complex relationship between europe defined here as the european union and its members and the states of the mediterranean middle east and north africa mena europe s southern neighbours these relations are examined through a borderlands prism that conceives of this interaction as of one between an empire of sorts which seeks to export its order beyond the border and the empire s southern borderlands focusing on trade relations on the one hand and the cooperation on migration borders and security on the other the book revisits the historical origins and modalities of europe s selective rule transfer to mena states the interests underwriting these policies and the complex dynamics marking the interaction between the two sides over a twenty year period 1995 2015 it shows that within a system of structurally asymmetric economic relations from which europe and mena elites benefit the most single mena governments have been co opted into the management of border and migration control where they act as europe s gatekeepers combined with specific policy choices of mena governments europe s selective expansion of its rules practices and disaggregated borders have in fact contributed to rising socio economic inequalities and the strengthening of authoritarian rule in the southern neighbourhood with europe tacitly tolerating serious violations of the rights of refugees and migrants at its fringes challenging the self proclaimed benevolent nature of european policies and the notion of fortress europe alike the findings of this study contribute to broader debates on power dependence and interdependence in the discipline of international relations israel and palestine were worlds apart during the pandemic that claimed over five million lives globally while palestinians were forced to adopt crude survival measures and endure economic privations israel was praised as a vaccination world leader this book demonstrates how israel utilized the pandemic to tighten surveillance and control over palestine and the palestinians drawing on theories of settler colonialism and the concept of necropolitics the book is a vital testament to the reality of the israeli settler colonial project today the author uses case studies and interviews with palestinians from the gaza strip hebron kufr aqab and the jalazoon refugee camp to understand the lived experiences of palestinians the newest colonial policies are discussed including how israel activated a counter terrorism database that could track citizens and ensure they adhered to lockdown regulations it also shows how israel destroyed palestinian infrastructure essential for water sanitation and hygiene leaving palestinians unable to fight the virus the book shows that for palestinians the pandemic was simply the latest in a long line of national catastrophes in a context where settler colonialism prevails
