this volume examines the discursive relations between indigenous colonial and post colonial legacies of place naming in africa in terms of the production of urban space and place it is conducted by tracing and analysing place naming processes particularly in sub saharan africa during colonial times british french belgian portuguese with a considerable attention to both the pre colonial and post colonial situations by combining in depth area studies research some of the contributions are of ethnographic quality with colonial history planning history and geography the authors intend to show that culture matters in research on place names this volume goes beyond the recent understanding obtained in critical studies of nomenclature normally based on lists of official names that place naming reflects the power of political regimes nationalism and ideology providing the first in depth intellectual and organizational mapping of the single state idea s recent resurgence in palestine israel this book enquires into its nature as a phenomenon of resistance as well as into its potential as a counterhegemonic force in the making against the processes of zionism reconstructing this moment of re emergence through primary material and interviews with diverse influential intellectuals its analysis highlights their self understandings worldviews strategies and perceptions of the phenomenon in which they are involved while questioning whether the single state idea has the potential to become a gramscian inspired movement of resistance against zionism in presenting this rare insight into a resistance movement in the making this book resurrects an empowering image of antonio gramsci infused with the writings of edward said this it does in an effort to both problematize the dominant interpretations of gramsci s writings in international relations and to decolonise the abstract way in which resistance and counter hegemony are often studied in the discipline contributing a mapping of a silenced alternative and hopeful way forward in the context of escalating violence this book is essential reading for those studying the arab israeli conflict middle east politics and international relations julia droeber focuses on the everyday experiences of young highly educated women in contemporary jordan she analyses their contributions to social change as well as the strategies they employ in dealing with the problems they face uniting a sense of the political dimensions of language appropriation with a serious yet accessible linguistic terminology the african palimpsest examines the strategies of indigenization whereby west african writers have made their literary english or french distinctively african through the apt metaphor of the palimpsest a surface that has been written on written over partially erased and written over again the book examines such well known west african writers as achebe armah ekwensi kourouma okara saro wiwa soyinka and tutuola as well as lesser known writers from francophone and anglophone africa providing a great variety of case studies in nigerian pidgin akan igbo maninka yoruba wolof and other african languages the book also clarifies the vital interface between europhone african writing and the new outlets for african artistic expression in auto translation broadcast television radio and film hailed as a classic in the 1990s the african palimpsest is here reprinted in a completely revised edition with a new introduction updated data and bibliography and with due consideration of more recent theoretical approaches a very valuable book a detailed exploration in its concern with language change as demonstrated in post colonial african literatures bill ashcroft university of new south wales apart from its great documentary value the african palimpsest provides many theoretical concepts that will be useful to scholars of african literatures linguists in general as well as comparatists who want to gain fresh insights into the processes by which vulgar latin once gave birth to the romance languages ahmed sheikh bangura university of california santa barbara as zabus book suggests it is the area where the various languages of a community meet and cross over that is likely to provide the most productive site for the generation of a new literature that is true to the real linguistic situation that pertains in so much of contemporary urban africa stewart brown university of birmingham
