this 1838 edition traces a journey through egypt and the near east by john lloyd stephens founder of mesoamerican archaeology

this book is about seven african nurse pioneers in kwazulu natal from 1920 to 2000 the author captures the early nursing activities of the 1920s to 1970 and then moves to nurses that entered the health services in the 1950s the author also presents two nurses that worked outside south africa i.e. did their pioneering nursing in saudi arabia and the united states of america the author does not scoop nursing out of its context but creates a narrative that resonates in lived experiences in a world dominated by the africanization of poverty the feminization of poverty globalization racism and xenophobia the relationship between the united states and saudi arabia has always been a marriage of convenience not affection in a bargain cemented by president roosevelt and saudi arabia s founding king in 1945 americans gained access to saudi oil and the saudis sent the dollars back with purchases of american planes american weapons american construction projects and american know how that brought them modernization education and security the marriage has suited both sides but how long can it last in inside the mirage veteran middle east journalist thomas w lippman shows that behind the official proclamations of friendship and alliance lies a complex relationship that has often been strained by the mutual aversion of two very different societies today the u s saudi partnership faces its greatest challenge as younger saudis less enamored of america rise to prominence and americans scorched by saudi based terrorism question the value of their ties to the desert kingdom with so much at stake for the entire ever volatile middle east this compelling and absolutely necessary account brings the light of new research onto the relationship between these two countries and the future of their partnership robin bidwell tells the story of the great explorers of arabia the exploits of niebuhr who made the first intrepid exploration into the interior of southern arabia in the 1760s of burton and philby the greatest of arabian explorers of charles montagu doughty wilfred thesiger freya stark and many others are recounted not only their adventures but also the contributions they made to western knowledge and understanding of arabia this is a fascinating account by the late robin bidwell who spent many years in arabia and was secretary of the middle east centre in the faculty of oriental studies university of cambridge
