the international monetary and financial system convened by the general assembly and led by joseph stiglitz in spite of some resistance to these initiatives from the united states and other developed countries professor ocampo advocates in this essay for a more influential role for the un s institutions in global financial reform especially in light of their superior track record in anticipating economic problems resulting from the inherent tendency of financial markets to experience boom bust cycles the 2008 2009 volumes of aruna therefore also devote considerable attention to the financial crisis as well as other international crises among the documents in the 2008 2009 volumes are the complete general assembly resolutions as well as the report and resolutions of the security council and the economic and social council ecosoc annual reports of note include reports of the united nations children s fund unicef the un development programme and un population fund the un high commissioner for humanrights the un high commissioner for refugees the un relief and works agency for palestine refugee in the near east and the world food programme mr muller and dr sauvant have also selected progress reports on key peacekeeping peace building and political missions including those for afghanistan the democratic republic of the congo haiti iraq kosovo the middle east somalia sudan and west africa each annual edition of aruna is introduced by a guest author a distinguished expert on un affairs who highlights the outstanding themes of the year in review together with an overview provided by the editors this introduction is intended to facilitate access to the material and above all to make it easier for users of aruna to see the forest for the trees as has been mentioned above aruna is fortunate this year to have jose antonio ocampo as the author of its introduction but the roster of distinguished experts who have contributed this introduction in the past is also worthy of mention jeffrey d sachs aruna 2007 2008 edition professor jeffrey d sachs is director of the earth institute at columbia university and special advisor to the secretary general of the un on the millennium development goals professor sachs s introduction to aruna 2007 2008 was titled towards a new global protocol on climate change in which he argued that solving the climate change problem will demand four steps scientific consensus public awareness the development of alternative technologies and a global framework for action he dealt in particular with the science underpinning the negotiations for a new global protocol on climate change as a successor to the kyoto protocol professor sachs argued that climate change crises can only be solved through the goals leadership and treaty mechanisms of the un edward c luck aruna 2006 2007 edition professor edward c luck is un special advisor on the responsibility to protect and vice president and director of studies at the international peace academy from 1984 to 1994 he served as president and chief executive officer of the un association of the usa una usa professor luck s introduction to aruna 2006 2007 covered the responsible sovereign and the responsibility to protect in which he addressed the scope and content of what was agreed at the 2005 world summit the implications of the responsibility to protect rtop for notions of state sovereignty and some of the conceptual architectural and policy challenges then facing un secretary general ban ki moon s commitment to operationalizing the responsibility to protect and translating it from words to deeds louise frechette aruna 2005 2006 edition ms louise frechette is distinguished fellow at the centre for international governance innovation waterloo ontario until march 2006 she was the first deputy secretary general of the un before that she was permanent representative of canada to the un ms frechette s introduction to aruna 2005 2006 covered united nations reform an unfinished story as the first deputy secretary general of the un ms frechette was uniquely positioned to undertake a personal assessment of what has changed and what has not changed in the past decade at the un and why she examined if the un is functioning better than it was 15 years ago why reform is so difficult to achieve and what the future holds for the institutions rubens ricupero aruna 2004 2005 edition mr rubens ricupero is dean of the fundacno armando alvares penteado faap sao paulo and was formerly secretary general of un conference on trade and development unctad and minister of finance of brazil mr ricupero s introduction to aruna 2004 2005 covered the difficulty of building consensus in an age of extremes and examined the mysteries of the negotiating process leading to the outcome of the 2005 world summit rather than a grand bargain of a comprehensive un reform in the areas of development security and human rights it is argued that the summit ended more on a note of lamentation and regret over a missed opportunity mr ricupero concludes that contrary to the daring proclamation at the outset by the secretary general the conditions indispensable to succeed were not in place indeed it was hard to imagine that an ambitious and balanced reform package for the un could have had any real chance of succeeding as sectarian and political tensions rose after march of 2005 scholars and journalists began to speculate that lebanon was heading back into civil war much academic literature in fact showed that the probability of regressing into such a state was very high although tensions did escalate and violence broke out on a number of occasions culminating in several days of fighting in may 2008 the doha agreement provided a peaceful political solution to the country s crisis this book offers an answer to the question of why no renewed civil war occurred in lebanon as well as to the larger question of why civil wars do or do not break out the author accomplishes this by developing and presenting a model of informal elite agreement which he terms consociational conflict while there has been a shift in security studies from the security of states to that of people realpolitik still takes place under the banner of an emerging discourse of refugee crisis located at the intersection of security studies and refugee scholarship this book is both a process and a product it explores the multi leveled sites of refugee security construction and policy translation that play an instrumental role in informing how syrian refugee insecurity is engendered and experienced in the case of lebanon it sheds light on how impromptu choices made by involved bodies such as the lebanese government and the unhcr can significantly impact local realities creating a vicious cycle of syrian refugee insecurities the main goal of this book is to record as much of the palestinian refugees political history as possible the author is becoming increasingly aware of the ebb and flow of general interest in the refugee issue and the strong possibility of subsuming that chapter in the larger palestinian story as the plo itself moved further and further away from the refugee constituency it became necessary to examine and define the impact of the refugee issue on the larger palestinian political picture for indeed as it turned out they were always a tremendous influence on the course of palestinian and arab history although they lost their leadership positions within the plo as the latter became increasingly elitist and bureaucratic the powerless refugees apparently never lost the means to influence the course of palestinian history this book relies heavily on early state department dispatches israeli foreign office correspondence early accounts of the stirrings of a refugee movement in jordan and declarations statements and studies of the badil research centre and some right of return groups also investigated is much of the known literature to emerge from the secretive oslo negotiations and the reverberations produced by their deliberations throughout the palestinian diaspora the resilience of the refugee question should never be questioned or declared until one of two things happened either the obliteration or dispersal of concentrated refugee communities became a reality or the palestinian refugees accepted a resolution of some kind or another
