an excellent contribution to our knowledge of iran and soleimani kim ghattas author of black wave when the us assassinated qassem soleimani he was one of the most powerful men in iran known as the shadow commander he enacted the wishes of the country s supreme leader across the middle east establishing the islamic republic as a major force in the region but all this was a long way from where he began on the margins of a nation whose ruler was seen as a friend of the west through soleimani arash azizi examines how iran came to be where it is today providing a rare insight into a country whose actions are often discussed but seldom understood he reveals the global ambitions underlying iran s proxy wars geopolitics and nuclear programme the book is a collection of fifteen plays written by prof iyorwuese hagher africa s most politically exposed playwright this rare collection offers a penetrating insight of corruption and politics in africa well as the global injustices that plagued the world in the last quarter of the 20th century and in contemporary times hagher s unique narrative style is richly inspired by his academic career as professor of theater and drama and his practical work as actor and director as well as his engagement with the traditional tiv kwagh hir theater hagher is master of satire humor and unending endings the plays are masterpieces of hagher s workshop experiences responding to a diplomatic stalemate and a catastrophic humanitarian crisis yemen s civil actors work every day to build peace in fragmented local communities across the country this book shows how their efforts relate to longstanding justice demands in yemeni society and details three decades of alternating elite indifference toward or strategic engagement with questions of justice exploring the transformative impact of the 2011 uprising and yemenis substantive wrestling with questions of justice in the years that followed leading yemen scholar stacey philbrick yadav shows how the transitional process was ultimately overtaken by war and explains why features of the transitional framework nevertheless remain a central reference point for civil actors engaged in peacebuilding today in the absence of a negotiated settlement everyday peacebuilding has become a new site for justice work as an arena in which civil actors enjoy agency and social recognition drawing on seventeen years of field research and interviews with civil actors yadav positions yemen s non combatants not or not only as victims of conflict but as political agents imagining and enacting the justice they wish to see this collection of essays surveys the full range of challenges that territorial conflicts pose for constitution making processes and constitutional design it provides seventeen in depth case studies of countries going through periods of intense constitutional engagement in a variety of contexts small distinct territories bi communal countries highly diverse countries with many politically salient regions and countries where territorial politics is important but secondary to other bases for political mobilization specific examples are drawn from iraq kenya cyprus nigeria south africa sri lanka the uk scotland ukraine bolivia india spain yemen nepal ethiopia indonesia aceh the philippines mindanao and bosnia herzegovina while the volume draws significant normative conclusions it is based on a realist view of the complexity of territorial and other political cleavages the country s political geometry and the power configurations that lead into periods of constitutional engagement thematic chapters on constitution making processes and constitutional design draw original conclusions from the comparative analysis of the case studies and relate these to the existing literature both in political science and comparative constitutional law this volume is essential reading for scholars of federalism consociational power sharing arrangements asymmetrical devolution and devolution more generally the combination of in depth case studies and broad thematic analysis allows for analytical and normative conclusions that will be of major relevance to practitioners and advisors engaged in constitutional design debunks the simplistic narratives of youth driven social media revolutions in the arab spring taking to the streets critically examines the conventional wisdom that the 2011 arab spring uprisings happened spontaneously and were directed by tech savvy young revolutionaries pairing first hand observations from activists with the critical perspectives of scholars the book illuminates the concept of activism as an ongoing process rather than a sudden burst of defiance the contributors examine case studies from uprisings in tunisia egypt libya yemen syria bahrain morocco jordan kuwait and saudi arabia evaluating the various manifestations of political activism within the context of each country s distinct sociopolitical landscape the chapters include a country specific timeline of the first year following the uprisings and conclude with lessons learned first hand observations include those of libyan activist rihab elhaj who reflects on how the revolution gave birth to libyan civil society as well as syrian writer and human rights activist khawla dunia who discusses how syrians have tried to remain steadfast in their commitment to nonviolent resistance a foreword by prince hicham ben abdallah el alaoui third in succession to the moroccan throne and consulting professor at stanford university s center on democracy development and the rule of law cddrl provides a historical overview of activism in the middle east and north africa a postscript from cddrl director larry diamond distinguishes the study of activism from that of democratization taking to the streets will be used in courses on middle east politics and will be relevant to scholars and the general public interested in democratization political change and activism offering an introduction to clanism and tribalism in the gulf of aden area dr lewis uses these concepts to analyse security in yemen somalia somaliland and the broader region this historical overview of conflict in each country and the resulting threats of piracy and terrorism will benefit both the casual reader and student of development since 2011 civil wars and state failure have wracked the arab world underlying the misalignment between national identity and political borders in break all the borders ariel i ahram examines the separatist movements that aimed to remake those borders and create new independent states with detailed studies of the islamic state in iraq and syria the federalists in eastern libya the southern resistance in yemen and kurdish nationalist parties ahram explains how separatists captured territory and handled the tasks of rebel governance including managing oil exports electricity grids and irrigation networks ahram emphasizes that the separatism arose not just as an opportunistic response to state collapse rather separatists drew inspiration from the legacy of woodrow wilson and ideal of self determination they sought to reinstate political autonomy that had been lost during the early and mid twentieth century speaking to the international community separatist promised a more just and stable world order in yemen syria iraq and libya they served as key allies against radical islamic groups yet their hopes for international recognition have gone unfulfilled separatism is symptomatic of the contradictions in sovereignty and statehood in the arab world finding ways to integrate instead of eliminate separatist movements may be critical for rebuilding regional order the fourth ordeal tells the history of the muslim brotherhood in egypt from the late 1960s until 2018 based on over 140 first hand interviews with leaders rank and file members and dissidents as well as a wide range of original written sources the story traces the brotherhood s re emergence and rise following the collapse of nasser s arab nationalism all the way to its short lived experiment with power and the subsequent period of imprisonment persecution and exile unique in terms of its source base this book provides readers with unprecedented insight into the brotherhood s internal politics during fifty years of its history several trips to the region that continue to this day the uprisings were fueled by a demographic surge of young people unable to find employment and frustrated by the lack of freedom and now the elected regime has been ousted for failing to address these continuing circumstances while modern technologies and social media may have brought new politics to the streets organization on the ground trumps the enthusiasm of young protesters when it comes to shaping a country's political future how to turn elections into democracy in these post conflict societies continues to be a daunting task especially in countries with a longstanding history of military involvement in politics now experiencing a resurgence this book addresses all of these subjects in an engaging and accessible narrative key features of the text

a close look at failed u s policies in the middle east offering a fresh perspective on how best to reorient goals in the region in this book alexandra stark argues that the u s approach to yemen offers insights into the failures of american foreign policy throughout the middle east stark makes the case that despite often being drawn into conflicts within yemen the united states has not achieved its policy goals because it has narrowly focused on counterterrorism and regional geopolitical competition rather than on the well being of yemenis themselves she offers recommendations designed to reorient u s policy in the middle east in pursuit of u s national security interests and to support the people of these countries in their efforts to make their own communities safe secure and prosperous museum activity has in recent years undergone major and rapid development in the arabian peninsula with the regeneration of existing museums as well as the establishment of new ones alongside such rapid expansion questions are inevitably raised as to the new challenges museums face in this region and whether the museum as a central focus of heritage preservation also runs the risk of overshadowing local forms of heritage performance and preservation with contributions from leading academics from a range of disciplines and heritage practitioners with first hand experience of working in the region this volume addresses the issues and challenges facing museums in kuwait saudi arabia qatar yemen and the uae it focuses on the themes of politics public engagement and the possibility of a new museum paradigm which might appropriately reflect the interests and culture of the region the interdisciplinary approaches analyse museum development from both an inside and outside perspective suggesting that museums do not follow a uniform trajectory across the region but are embedded within each states socio cultural context individual government agendas and political realities including case study analysis which brings the more marginal nations into the debates as well as new empirical data and critical evaluation of the role of the museum in the arabian peninsula societies this book adds fresh perspectives to the study of gulf heritage and museology it will appeal to regional and international practitioners and academics across the disciplines of museum studies cultural studies and anthropology as well as to anyone with an interest in the gulf and middle east law international law more generally and domestic national security laws do not provide adequate legal and policy coverage and guidance for multiple reasons many of which are explored in this book a second shared premise is that these problems are not only challenges for the law in post 9 11 security environments but matters of policy with implications for the international community and for global security more generally how global organized crime shapes the politics of borders in modern conflicts separatism has been on the rise across the world since the end of the cold war dividing countries through political strife ethnic conflict and civil war and redrawing the political map gangsters and other statesmen examines the role transnational mafias play in the success and failure of separatist movements challenging conventional wisdom about the interrelation of organized crime with peacebuilding nationalism and state making danilo mandić conducted fieldwork in the disputed territories of kosovo and south ossetia talking to mobsters separatists and policymakers in war zones and along major smuggling routes in this timely and provocative book he demonstrates how globalized mafias shape the politics of borders in torn states shedding critical light on an autonomous nonstate actor that has been largely sidelined by considerations of geopolitics state centered agency and ethnonationalism blending extensive archival sleuthing and original ethnographic data with insights from sociology and other disciplines mandić argues that organized crime can be a fateful determinant of state capacity separatist success and ethnic conflict putting mafias at the center of global processes of separatism and territorial consolidation gangsters and other statesmen raises vital questions and urges reconsideration of a host of separatist cases in west africa the middle east and east europe accomplished instructors and intelligence practitioners beebe and pherson have created a set of twelve robust class tested cases on events in foreign intelligence counterintelligence terrorism homeland security law enforcement and decision making support the case studies are designed to give analysts intraining a hands on opportunity to apply structured analytic techniques to tackle real life problems each case delivers a compelling narrative and a set of step by step instructions that make teaching and learning as effective and efficient as possible key features questions at the start of each case challenge the student to think critically and help the students bring the case into focus carefully crafted narratives provide the right amount of detail to give a realistic sense of the complexity and challenges of the case recommended readings at the end of each narrative allow room for further research sections entitled structured analytic techniques in action frame the analytic tasks and provide step by step instructions for applying three to five analytic techniques in a series of exercises for each case study two hundred photos maps figures tables boxes and technique templates support analysis and instruction and a matrix of the cases and techniques used in each cases augment the annotated table of contents and provide students and instructors an all in one view of the contents in 2011 the middle east saw more people peacefully protesting long entrenched dictatorships than at any time in its history the dictators of tunisia egypt and yemen were deposed in a matter of weeks by nonviolent marches imprecisely described as the arab spring the revolution has been convulsing the whole region ever since beyond an uneven course in different countries philosophy of nonviolence examines how 2011 may have ushered in a fundamental break in world history the break the book argues is animated by nonviolence as the new spirit of the philosophy of history philosophy of nonviolence maps out a system articulating nonviolence in the revolution the rule of constitutional law it yearns for and the demand for accountability that inspired the revolution in the first place part one revolution provides modern context to the generational revolt probes the depth of middle eastern islamic humanism and addresses the paradox posed by nonviolence to the perpetual peace ideal part two constitutionalism explores the reconfiguration of legal norms and power structures mechanisms of institutional change and constitution making processes in pursuit of the nonviolent anima part three justice covers the broadening concept of dictatorship as crime against humanity an essential part of the philosophy of nonviolence it follows its frustrated emergence in the french revolution its development in the middle east since 1860 through the trials of arab dictators the pyramid of accountability post dictatorship and the scope of foreign intervention in nonviolent revolutions throughout the text professor mallat maintains thoroughly abstract and philosophical arguments while substantiating those arguments in historical context enriched by a close participation in the ongoing middle east revolution this volume explores how famine and mass starvation in our lifetime are the result of man made policies and invariably occur during times of armed conflict it provides expert analysis on defining starvation early warning systems gender and mass starvation the use of sanctions reporting on and memory of famine

i had no idea how to find my way around this medieval city it was getting dark i was tired i didn t speak arabic i was a little frightened but hadn t i battled scorpions in the wilds of costa rica and prevailed hadn t i survived fainting in a san josé brothel hadn t i once arrived in ireland with only 10 in my pocket and made it last two weeks surely i could handle a walk through an unfamiliar town so i took a breath tightened the black scarf around my hair and headed out to take my first solitary steps through sana a from the woman who fell from the sky in a world fraught with suspicion between the middle east and the west it s hard to believe that one of the most influential newspapers in yemen the desperately poor ancestral homeland of osama bin laden which has made has made international headlines for being a terrorist breeding ground would be handed over to an agnostic campari drinking single woman from manhattan who had never set foot in the middle east yet this is exactly what happened to journalist jennifer steil restless in her career and her life jennifer a gregarious liberal new yorker initially accepts a short term opportunity in 2006 to teach a journalism class to the staff of the yemen observer in sana a the beautiful ancient and very conservative capital of yemen seduced by the eager reporters and the challenging prospect of teaching a free speech model of journalism there she extends her stay to a year as the paper s editor in chief but she is quickly confronted with the realities of yemen and their surprising advantages in teaching the basics of fair and balanced journalism to a staff that included plagiarists and polemicists she falls in love with her career again in confronting the blatant mistreatment and strict governance of women by their male counterparts she learns to appreciate the strength of arab women in the workplace and in forging surprisingly deep friendships with women and men whose traditions and beliefs are in total opposition to her own she learns a cultural appreciation she never could have predicted what s more she just so happens to meet the love of her life with exuberance and bravery the woman who fell from the sky offers a rare intimate and often surprising look at the role of the media in muslim culture and a fascinating cultural tour of yemen one of the most enigmatic countries in the world the promotion of political reform participation human rights and democracy on the southern and eastern shores of the mediterranean was a key objective for the european union as it prepared the barcelona conference in 1995 today it is clear that these policies have failed to prompt an end to authoritarian rule the authors of democracy building and democracy erosion analyse why eu policies have not produced major political impact while remaining sensitive to changes that may translate into greater participation and respect for civil liberties the question at the heart of this volume is whether the erosion of democracy in the north compounded by the effects of 9 11 has affected the promotion of democracy in the south the failure of democracy in the south may well be linked to authoritarian trends on a global scale contributors include mustapha kamel al sayyid gilles massardier eric gobe oliver schlumberger isabel schäfer robert springborg holger albrecht virginie collombier marc lazar and mohamed mouaquit in recent years al qaeda in the arabian peninsula aqap has been widely recognized as a more dangerous regional and international terrorist organization than the original al qaeda led by osama bin laden until his death in 2011 in 2010 11 aqap was able to present a strong challenge to yemen s government by capturing and retaining large areas in the southern part of the country yemen s new reform president defeated aqap and recaptured areas under their control in 2012 but the terrorists remain an extremely dangerous force seeking to reassert themselves at this time of transition in yemen outlines the impact of the rivalry between saudi arabia and iran across the middle east challenging assumptions about proxy wars and sectarianism this core text is the first to provide a much needed interdisciplinary approach to international studies emphasizing the interconnected nature of history geography anthropology economics and political science international studies details the methodologies and subject matter of each discipline then applies these discipline lenses to seven regions europe east asia and the pacific south and central asia sub saharan africa the middle east and north africa latin america and north america this disciplinary and regional combination provides an indispensable cohesive framework for understanding global issues the fully updated fourth edition includes four new global issues chapters the refugee crisis in europe the syrian civil war and the rise of the islamic state global climate change and the globalization of modern sports
