the twentieth century was a fascinating period of profound political social and economic changes in indonesia these changes contributed to the diversification of the religious landscape and as a result religious authority was redistributed over an increasing number of actors although many muslims in indonesia continued to regard the ulama the traditional religious scholars as the principle source of religious guidance religious authority has become more diffused and differentiated over time the present book consists of contributions which all deal with the multi faceted and multidimensional topic of religious authority and aim to complement each other most papers deal with indonesia but two dealing with other countries have been included in order to add a comparative dimension amongst the topics dealt with are the different and changing roles of the ulama the rise and role of muslim organizations developments within islamic education like the madrasa and the spread of salafi ideas in contemporary indonesia the tarikhnamah is a history of the world and the oldest surviving work of persian prose this book examines it as a political and cultural document and why it became such an influential work in the islamic world palestine in the egyptian press follows the evolution of the press institution in modern egypt as well as of the prominent role that the palestine question performed in its rise to political prominence through the lens of the press author ghada hashem talhami studies the development of democracy under authoritarian rule as successive egyptian regimes struggled to curb and contain the power of the fourth estate the palestine question begins to impinge on egypt s consciousness after world war i largely due to the manifest pro zionist sentiments of a segment of the jewish population at the same time efforts by rising islamic groups and pan arabist circles to engage in the national identity debate quickly seize control of the palestine question as the most vulnerable area of egypt s security identity and borders following the evolution of the press under nasser sadat and mubarak palestine in the egyptian press explores the restrictions and freedoms allowed to the media there is no better reference to explain the press syndicate s rise to prominence or the success of generations of journalists in establishing arabic as the formal language of egypt or the palestine issue as the centerpiece of egypt s pan arab policies book jacket the 19th century saw an enormous shift in the authority structure of iranian and iraqi twelver shiism with the victory of a theological school usulism that stressed the power of the clergy this is well known what is less well known is that there was a parallel development of authority in the shaykhi school and its offshoot the babi sect here especially in later forms of babism the shiite claim to charismatic authority reached its limits in hyperbolic attestations of divinity the present text is in two parts a study of how shaykhism bifurcated into a form close to orthodoxy next to the highly unorthodox babi movement part two examines how babism changed after the death in 1850 of its founder the bāb

the concept of nation building is a multi dimensional process addressing various components simultaneously it takes into account the various historical and geographical perspectives of the country in question noting the peculiarities and diversity of its cultural ethos including its social economic and political structures this volume addresses these inter linked aspects and the innovative development of these structures and institutions however such changes and development must be directed to create a more culturally homogenous and productive society so that basic human needs like food shelter healthcare and education are fulfilled at the optimum level all round development and growth for the nation can be achieved only with a robust economy and political stability as such the process of nation building and development is a multifaceted phenomenon in the context of india this process is associated with the central values embodied in the preamble of the country s constitution which advocates for the establishment of secular socialist and democratic society based on well defined fundamental rights this anthology reflects these academic spirits and vistas the american journal of islamic social sciences ajiss established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the international institute of islamic thought iiit and distributed worldwide the journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of islam and the muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional islam almost twenty years after the oslo accords and the formation of the palestinian national authority pa there is a need to examine this experience in all its aspects especially since it has not achieved its main goal the transition from an autonomous authority to an independent state with full sovereignty over the 1967 occupied palestinian territories west bank and gaza strip this book is a comprehensive study of the pa and its experience the 15 chapters analyze the aspects of the pa establishment and its legislative judicial and presidential institutions as well as the performance of successive governments the book deals with the internal palestinian situation the security forces the pa position towards the resistance forces and economic demographic educational and health conditions in the west bank and gaza strip it also tackles the corruption in the pa the relationship between the pa and the media as well as its foreign policy this book is a systematic scientific study that forensically documents the pa experience it has undergone the usual procedures of scientific editing including the reviewing of texts and references covers a range of literary and linguistic subjects from pre islamic times to the twentieth century since september 11 2001 and the wars in afghanistan and iraq many television viewers in the united states have become familiar with al jazeera as offering an alternative take on events from that presented by mainstream u s media as well as disseminating anti american invective westerners have tended toward simplistic views of arab newspapers radio and television assuming that they are all under government control and that freedom of press is non existent william a rugh a long time observer of the arab mass media offers a more nuanced picture of the arab press as it relates to the political situation in the arab world today although governmental influence over the media is stronger in the middle east than in europe or the united states rugh argues that there is more diversity in the arab media than most people in the west realize in reality the arab media are coming to reflect the diversity and wide range of opinions of those within the arab world itself in particular the advent of privately owned arab satellite television in the 1990s has led to significant liberalization of the media throughout the region rugh concludes that a democracy of ideas and voices is slowly growing in the arab world and he remains guardedly optimistic about the positive role the arab media can play in processes of democratization and nation building iran is now at the center of political and social developments in the middle east this book examines the reform of the judicial system in 20th century iran and is the first to relate state building process with rule of law promotion and judicial reform in the region this subject occupies the critical juncture of three developments in the contemporary study of iranian society as an important and early case of social revolution and reform in the middle east the state building process in a non western country throughout the 20th century the incorporation of a non western muslim country into the western legal framework through codification and transplantation 1911 1979 and the islamicization process after this critical social development and the islamic revolution of 1979 this exceptional study furthers our understanding of iranian modern history as well as the democratization process human rights and rule of law issues in the middle east in the seventh and eighth centuries the muslim arabs conquered large areas of north africa and then with the help of their former adversaries in north africa the berbers gained a decisive victory over the visigoths in spain this book first published in 1989 and based on arabic and other sources describes the process of conquest and settlement first depicting the lack of unity in north africa and the corruption and insolvency in spain that made the advance possible it provides an invaluable classification of the arab and berber settlers in spain by tribal origin area of settlement and time of entry the book emphasises throughout the importance of the economic and administrative relationship between north africa and spain it charts the growing resentment of the early settlers in spain with the restrictions on their autonomy imposed by the governor general of north africa and the caliphate it describes the rising tensions between old and new settlers and between the different tribal groups finally leading to the berber revolt and abdulrahman s consolidation of power towards the end of the umayyad caliphate
