an islamic terrorist movement isis also dubbed is or isil has taken advantage of the chaotic arab spring in syria and iraq to declare an islamic caliphate wherever it has been able to rise to power this movement is continuously attempting to extend the territory of its rule the egyptian sinai peninsula and the libyan post qaddafi desert country have sworn allegiance to the caliphate and every town that is captured by the fighting forces of isis is forced to submit to strict islamic law the caliphate movement is constantly increasing its power and influence it is not only sustained by the thousands of local recruits but it is reinforced by many thousands of muslim minority youth dwelling abroad these youths are charmed by the purity of its ideals and goals its brutal and coercive ways and its defiance of the west the united states some moderate arab allies in the gulf and some other international players including russia have launched attacks against the isis forces to prevent them from further destroying the ancient cultures of mosul and palmyra dedicated by unesco as part of the world heritage beyond that there does not seem to be any force capable of arresting their advance or checking their universal appeal to muslims around the world israeli s pessimistic conclusion is that isis may be contending for power in the middle east for many years to come while threatening to become a centre of terrorist activity against the west an intimate telling of the wild days of the 2011 egyptian revolution ahdaf soueif was born and brought up in cairo when the egyptian revolution of 2011 erupted on january 25th she along with thousands of others called tahrir square home for eighteen days she reported for the world s media and did like everyone else whatever she could cairo tells the story of the egyptian revolution of how on the 28th of january when the people took the square and torched the headquarters of the hated ruling national democratic party the same people formed a human chain to protect the antiquities museum and demanded an official handover to the military it tells how on wednesday february 2nd as the people defended themselves against the invading thug militias and fought pitched battles at the entrance to the square in the shadow of the antiquities museum the same people at the centre of the square debated political structures and laughed at stand up comics and distributed sandwiches and water through a map of stories drawn from private history and public record soueif charts a story of the revolution that is both intimately hers and publicly egyptian captures the intoxicating romance of the weeks when anything seemed possible soueif writes with verve and passion offering the authentic voice of the liberal egyptian who risked everything because she wanted her country to have freedom and democracy telegraph should serve as a heartening reminder of what people are capable of achieving when united and courageous economist ahdaf soueif is extraordinary edward said author of orientalism a convincing and skilful writer sunday times highly unusual and richly impressive guardian constitutionalism human rights and islam after the arab spring offers a comprehensive analysis of the impact that new and draft constitutions and amendments such as those in jordan morocco syria egypt and tunisia have had on the transformative processes that drive constitutionalism in arab countries this book aims to identify and analyze the key issues facing constitutional law and democratic development in islamic states and offers an in depth examination of the relevance of the transformation processes for the development and future of constitutionalism in arab countries using an encompassing and multi faceted approach this book explores underlying trends and currents that have been pivotal to the arab spring while identifying and providing a forward looking view of constitution making in the arab world faith war and violence analyzes the age old links between religion and violence perpetrated in the name of god and the role religion performs in politically infusing the state with romantic spiritualism the volume examines instances of this phenomenon from ancient rome to the modern day it finds that religion inspired violence is not restricted to abrahamic faiths or to one geographic region the fact that symbolically charged religious violence has destructive consequences is not lost on contributors to faith war and violence among the subjects tackled are the ideological and religious foundations that inspired the founders of al qaeda and its role in the arab spring the long history of religious conflict in ireland known as the troubles sikh extremism and the evolution of the christian approach to war as the contributors demonstrate in western societies the unity of religious fervor and warmongering stretches from constantine s incorporation of christian symbols into roman army flags to slogans like gott mit uns god is with us which appeared on the belt buckles of german soldiers in world war i in recent years george w bush declared the war on terror a crusade and his speechwriter david frum coined the religiously inspired term axis of evil to describe iraq and other countries opposing the united states an examination of the cultural occupations of egypt over the past two millennia and how we can return to the sacred harmony of ancient egypt explores the golden civilization of ancient egypt and its system of natural magic that birthed the western mystery tradition examines each phase of egyptian history from the pharaonic period through the roman conquest to the ongoing islamization provides a revised portrait of the life of muhammad revealing his connections to the essene tradition imagine the paradise of ancient egypt a lush green valley with a gentle river full of animals and birds of all sizes the first settlers arriving by way of the desert would have marveled at this beautiful landscape this awe held on through the first three millennia of settlement in egypt centered on careful observations of the natural rhythms of their environment particularly the Nile this enlightened civilization lived in a state of spiritual balance and harmony they called living in maat this state was further enhanced by the sacred landscape of egypt and the colossal monuments and pyramids the egyptians built to reflect the heavens thus creating a cosmic spiritual engine for the ancient world but sadly the paradise and maat of ancient egypt were not to last and for the past two thousand years egypt has experienced many occupations by hostile forces bent on taking control of this magical land exploring the exemplary social and cultural model that produced the golden civilization of ancient egypt as well as the many waves of conquest and destruction up to the present day robert bauval and ahmed osman examine each phase of egyptian history from its origins and the pharaonic period through the roman conquest and its christianization to the pan arabization of nasser and the ongoing islamization that began with the muslim caliphate in the 7th century they show how the current islamic rulers are actively working to eradicate all traces of egypt's spiritual roots the source of the western mystery tradition they provide a revised portrait of the life of muhammad revealing his connections to the essene tradition and explain how most sharia law is not based on the koran revealing how even the dams built on the Nile are impeding egypt's sacred role the authors sound the call for a return to the original tenets of egyptian civilization one that sustained itself in harmony and peaceful creativity for more than three millennia discusses why and how the Egyptian judiciary was critically important in bringing down two vastly different regimes in three years it was paradoxical that under President Trump who was supposed to be belligerent and irreconcilable a new avenue of understanding opened up with the Arab world especially the Gulf states and Egypt this relationship had gone awry under President Obama who had started by prostrating himself before the Saudi King and speaking of accommodation and engagement with the Islamic world at Cairo University but ended up supporting the Muslim Brother Government there and condemning the Sisi coup that overturned it the pragmatic move of President Trump which scuttled the radical Muslim takeover of many Arab countries in the wake of the abortive Arab Spring of the 2010s also helped open the road to a new era of reconciliation between Israel and the Gulf states to which were gradually added Morocco Sudan and Chad with more following this move has launched a new unprecedented wave of repenting Arab countries besides Egypt and Jordan which made peace with Israel discovering that peace and cooperation were more fruitful and promising than vain hatred and repeated battles that resulted only in destruction death and loss this handbook provides the first comprehensive reference book in English about the development of mass and social media in all Arab countries capturing the historical as well as current developments in the media scene this collection maps the role of media in social and political movements contributors include specialists in the field from North America Europe and the Middle east each chapter provides an overview of the history regulatory frameworks and laws governing the press and socio political functions of the media while the geopolitical complexities of the region have been reflected in the expert analyses collectively the focus is always the local context of each member state all 38 chapters consider the specific historical political and media trajectories in each country to provide a contextual background and foundation for further study about single states or comparative analysis in two or more arab states capturing significant technological developments and the widespread use of social media this all inclusive volume on arab media is a key resource for students and scholars interested in journalism media and middle east studies in his first new travel book in eight years the endearingly irascible theroux takes readers the length of africa by rattletrap bus dugout canoe cattle truck armed convoy ferry and train guiding readers on a journey that introduces them to russian and australian belly dancers on nile cruise ships saudi girls looking for a slightly less restrictive dating scene and other stories this book uses the lens of travel and tourism to depict a surprising version of egypt while exploring the concept of stereotypes investigating the connections between multiculturalism minorities citizenship and democracy in north africa this book argues that multiculturalism in this region and in the arab world at large has reached a significant level in terms of scale and importance in the rest of the world there has been a trend albeit a contested one toward a greater recognition of minority rights the arab world however particularly north africa seems to be an exception to this trend as arab states continue to promote highly unitary and homogenizing ideas of nationhood and state unity whilst discouraging or even forbidding minority political mobilization the central theoretical premise of this book is that north africa is a multicultural region where culture is inherently linked to politics religion gender and society and a place where democracy is gradually taking root despite many political and economic hurdles addressing the lacuna in literature on this issue this book opens new avenues of thought and research on diversity linking policy based on cultural difference to democratic culture and to social justice multiculturalism and democracy in north africa will be of use to students and researchers with an interest in sociology cultural studies and political science more broadly readings from literary works that re construct a century of cairo s changing social life unlike the literary atlas of cairo which focuses on the literary geopolitics of the cityscape this companion volume immerses the reader in the complex network of socioeconomic and cultural lives in the city the seven chapters first introduce the reader to representations of some of cairo s prominent profiles both political and cultural and their impact on the city s literary geography before presenting a spectrum of readings of the city by its multiethnic multinational and multilingual writers across class gender and generation daunting images of colonial school experiences and startling contrasts of postcolonial educational realities are revealed while cairo s moments of political participation and oppression are illustrated as well as the space accorded to women within the city across history and class the city's marginals are placed on its literary map alongside representations of the relationship between writing and drugs and the places paraphernalia and products of the drug world across class and time together the literary atlas of Cairo and the literary life of Cairo produce a literary geography of Cairo that goes beyond the representation of space in literature to reconstruct the complex network of human relationships in that space

In recent years the Arab world and Iran have been afflicted by cataclysmic events among them brutal state crackdowns of revolutions yet filmmakers have persisted in their desire to tell their stories against the odds in creative acts that attest to their imagination courage and resilience in this book Shohini Chaudhuri examines a broad range of films made during the tumultuous period since 2009 ranging from internationally award winning festival favourites such as For Sama 2019 Capernaum 2018 and Taxi Tehran 2015 to lesser known films from the region while freedom of expression is often understood through the lens of state censorship she reveals the different types of obstacles that filmmakers face and their strategies for overcoming them so that those constraints are transformed into creative opportunities using her original interviews with filmmakers such as Waad Al Kateab Yasmin Fedda Larissa Sansour Mani Haghighi and Ossama Mohammed she identifies nine creative strategies for producing work under conditions of crisis Chaudhuri argues that creativity is indelibly shaped by constraints whether these are externally imposed by existing materials funding and socio political conditions or self imposed constraints through choices of genre or acceptance of rules and responsibilities she shows that the range of creative strategies emanating from the region is much wider than allegory and becoming ever more direct she thus opens up new lines of inquiry into cinematic creativity in sites of conflict and crisis in the Middle East and beyond
