providing a contemporary history of the palestinian prisoners movement this book illustrates the centrality of the movement in the broader palestinian national struggle based on direct interviews with former prisoners and former security sector personnel it offers new insights into the strategies that prisoners employed to gain rights over time as well as the tactics used by prison authorities to maintain control prisons have functioned as microcosms of the broader israeli palestinian conflict for decades with the israeli state aiming to use mass incarceration for security and palestinian prisoners seeking to take back the prison space for organizing and resistance prisoners actions included but were not limited to hunger strikes as prisoners often relied more on everyday acts of noncompliance and developing an internal counterorder to challenge authorities the volume demonstrates how the palestinian prisoners movement was intertwined with the palestinian national movement strongest in the popular mobilization era of the 1970s and 1980s and significantly weaker and more fragmented after the oslo accords of the 1990s and the second intifada presenting a fresh analysis of a central but often overlooked aspect of the israeli palestinian conflict the volume offers valuable reflections on prison based resistance in protracted conflicts more broadly it is a key resource to students and scholars interested in contemporary conversations on mass incarceration criminal justice middle east politics and history palestinian political organizations in israeli prisons examines the evolution and changes within the palestinian prisoners movement and the structural opportunities and constraints that inform collective resistance today drawing on observation based fieldwork and over 40 interviews with ex prisoners and additional interviews with lawyers and advocates this book presents a sociological account of palestinian prisoners in israel an important reflection of the wider israeli palestinian conflict the oslo accords the peace agreements between the palestinian liberation organization and israel transformed not only palestinian politics but the entire prison environment by exploring issues including the specific characteristics of women s resistance the effects of the islamicization new hunger strike strategies consumerism within the prison parenting children and escapes palestinian political organizations in israeli prisons offers a fresh analysis of political resistance in israeli prisons applying a social movement approach and drawing comparisons to other politically motivated prisoner groups the book traces the effects of changes from the oslo accords through to today including the second intifada the split between hamas and fatah the co option of the palestinian authority and increasingly systematic prison management explaining how these factors have affected life for palestinian prisoners in israeli prisons and influence conflicts today the rise and fall of human rights provides a groundbreaking ethnographic investigation of the palestinian human rights world its ngos activists and victims as well as their politics training and discourse since 1979 though human rights activity began as a means of struggle against the israeli occupation in failing to end the israeli occupation protect basic human rights or establish an accountable palestinian government the human rights industry has become the object of cynicism for many palestinians but far from indicating apathy such cynicism generates a productive critique of domestic politics and western interventionism this book illuminates the successes and failures of palestinians varied engagements with human rights in their quest for independence the suffering of the palestinian patient under the israeli occupation is the new book published by al zaytouna center for studies and consultations in beirut the book addresses the suffering of the palestinian patients and the palestinian health sector due to israeli violations these include the vast difference in health care between the jews and arabs the experimentations done on arab patients the repercussions of the siege on the gazan patients in addition to the influence of the israeli checkpoints and the separation wall on the patients in the west bank the suffering of the patients held in the israeli jails and the deliberate targeting of medical personnel the book prepared by fatima itani and atef daghlas and edited by dr mohsen saleh and rana sa adah is 128 pages of medium size it is the 11th in the am i not human series which endeavors to present a full and complete picture of the suffering of palestinians under israeli occupation it tries its best to address the hearts and minds with the most accurate concrete and documented framework the book cites many cases of patients whose suffering is exacerbated by israeli obstacles and the difficult conditions of palestinian health care institutions the book also addressees the delays at the israeli checkpoints and the gates of the separation wall in addition to impeding the access of patients and pregnant women to health care centers the number of patients who died at the checkpoints has amounted to 401 since the outburst of the intifadah and till 31 1 2011 on another hand the book highlights the deterioration of health care sector in the gaza strip as a result of the israeli siege which was imposed since mid 2007 it led to a serious shortage of medicine medical instruments other necessary requirements for hospitals and even ambulances these conditions caused the death of 380 palestinians the book also includes comparative statistics which illustrate the gap s magnitude between health care offered to jews and palestinians it mentioned that in 2008 the average per capita allocations of health resources was 2 145 in israel compared to 165 5 in the palestinian authority territories while the number of beds in 2009 reached 42 119 beds in israeli hospitals compared to 5 058 beds in palestinian hospitals the book sheds light on the experimentations performed on palestinian patients in the israeli hospitals including children old and mentally ill patients without their own or their legal custodians permission it reveals the testing of serious drugs on the palestinians prisoners and the illegal trade of palestinian human organs from corpses to treat israeli patients including soldiers this conduct fails to respect international covenants which regulate medical experimentations on patients in addition the book tackles the israeli policy of deliberate medical neglect regarding the prisoners and preventing them from getting proper medical care these conditions increased in the number of sick prisoners and exacerbated their diseases even after their release consequently and since 1967 over 51 palestinian prisoners died in the israeli prisons the israeli policy of preventing patients from traveling abroad to get treatment was also discussed in the book for israel has the tendency to impose conditions of collaboration with the israeli authorities and revealing information about their wanted relatives or neighbors in order to get proper treatment in israel the frequent israeli attacks on palestinian medical personnel were also exposed the personnel are fired at physically and verbally abused and obstructed from reaching patients or even the injured during israeli military operations ambulances and medical facilities are always targeted this book the fourth among the series of am i not a human deals with the suffering of the palestinian prisoners under the israeli occupation where statistics reveal that since 1967 around 25 of the palestinian population has been detained this detention process involves various humiliation dimensions violaitng international conventions and basic humanitarian conduct in addition to the treaties and laws all this is presented in this book with special focus on the statistics and documented description on the sufferings and human rights violations this volume is more about jewish people than it is about palestine and it is in turn more about palestine than it is about israel the latter only being mentioned in a secondary way as such this book isn t addressed exclusively to readers of a single religious or cultural community it s addressed first and foremost to those who want to know more about the reasons behind the israel palestine conflict and how to solve it although the violence with which the word palestine is often associated remains a mystery for many people it can be rationally explained the book s introduction reserves a few surprises and its conclusion offers readers contemporary perspectives in light of historical experience this study starts out with a historical chronology of the jewish arab conflict in palestine before examining political and ethical debates which accompanied the development of palestinian nationalism and of jewish nationalism zionism these themes are taken up around specific centres of interest without neglecting the portraits of certain key players in the jewish community who have contributed to raising the debate on palestine the book doesn't start nor end in the middle east it's a world tour of jewish communities and what they think of the palestinian question going back over a century and up to the present day

dr jamil effarah tackles the struggle between palestinians and israelis in three volumes under the title think palestine that exposes series of articles addressing various issues regarding the complex struggle between palestinians and israelis based on developing events that took place involving the u s administrations and their policies of support for israel in the conflicts among palestinians arabs and israelis this volume iii is intended for those students teachers politicians executives policy makers and others who are interested or involved in the middle east affairs he interprets these events and policies as reflected by the last six years 2013 2018 dr effarah started writings since 1952 while student at the american university of beirut aub as an arab american independent thinker he judges events according to their merits while acting as a participant observer to the one sided american policy toward the middle east that serves the interest of israel he records and highlights the facts in an attempt to find the key to unlock the palestinian arab and israeli conflicts his personal feelings as a survival of the palestinian holocaust of 1948 and his interpretations toward the proceedings representing a major part in the events that took place in that period to find solutions to the palestinians dilemma is to be fair to think palestine to think palestine is to understand how to find the real key to just solutions to the problems in that region dr effarah attempts to create a voice for arab americans to stand up and be counted and act as an integral part of the american society he keeps pressing for more american arab participation in the political process for more transparency and for faster and farther reaching to the americans hearts and minds by trying to make them understand the arabs situations and arab christian patrimony culture and heritage dr effarah attempts to create an arab american balanced policy to reach americans and convince them that there are special interest groups and influential lobbyists in washington d c who misinform media and try to spin the story around while beholding to the fabricated israeli points of view to counterbalance the zionist efforts arab americans should think palestine and ask the american citizens to find answers to why the american citizens the taxpayers give money outright to israel more than 8 5 million per day according to the cia factbook in 2012 it also was upgraded to 8 9 million per day with president trump administration giving 3 3 billion in 2019

ramzy baroud's book of palestinian prisoners stories is a remarkable work with each story there is a roll call of the best of humanity courage struggle determination generosity passion humility everyone should read this searing and beautiful book john pilger you will delve into the lives of men and women read intimate stories that they have chosen to share with you stories that may surprise you anger you and even shock you but they are crucial stories that must be told read and retold khalida jarrar palestine legislative council the rationale for palestinian resistance is heightened by having law and morality on the side of demands for an end to the oppressive israeli occupation and the persistent abuse of fundamental palestinian rights richard falk former un special rapporteur prof emeritus princeton hundreds of thousands of palestinians have experienced life in israel s prisons since 1967 as did many more in previous decades during the course of the ongoing israeli military occupation yet rarely has the story of their experiences in israeli jails been told by the prisoners themselves typically the western media portrays them as terrorists while well meaning third party human rights advocates paint them as hapless victims they are neither this book permits the reader to access the reality of palestinian imprisonment as told by palestinian prisoners themselves stories of appalling suffering and determination to reclaim their freedom the stories in this book are not meant to serve as an account of israeli torture methods instead each story highlights a distinct experience each so personal so profound in order to underline the humanity of those who are constantly dehumanized by israeli hasbara and the mainstream corporate media s biased accounts palestinian prisoners are an essential element in the collective resistance against israeli colonialism apartheid and military occupation rather than being viewed as unfortunate victims their steadfastness exemplifies the ongoing fight of the palestinian people as a whole in reality all palestinians living under israeli occupation and siege are also prisoners the gaza strip is often referred to as the world s largest open air prison it is in this context that this book becomes an essential read in stateless citizenship shourideh c molavi examines the mechanisms of exclusion of palestinian citizens in the zionist incorporation regime and centres our analytical gaze on the paradox that it is through the provision of israeli citizenship that palestinians are deemed stateless this volume contains several articles on the topic detention in non international armed conflict including the copenhagen process and moreover features contributions on autonomous weapons systems apartheid and the second turkel report it also contains an elaborate year in review and a special section on the high level boundaries of the battlefield symposium including a conference report and several in depth reflections on various other aspects of the symposium the yearbook of international humanitarian law is the world s only annual publication devoted to the study of the laws governing armed conflict it provides a truly international forum for high quality peer reviewed academic articles focusing on this crucial branch of international law distinguished by contemporary relevance the yearbook of international humanitarian law bridges the gap between theory and practice and serves as a useful reference tool for scholars practitioners military personnel civil servants diplomats human rights workers and students this book deals with the contemporary history of the imprisonment of palestinians in israeli prisons since 1967 and since the 2000s in palestinian facilities the prison experience is widely shared in the occupied palestinian territories it endurably marks personal and collective stories since the occupation of the palestinian territories in 1967 mass incarceration has spun a prison web a kind of suspended detention approximately 40 percent of the male population has been to prison it shows how the judicial and prison practices applied to palestinian residents of the opt are major fractal devices of control contributing to the management of israeli borders and shape a specific bordering system based on a mobility regime such borders are mobile networked and endless this history of confinement is that of the prison web and of the in between political social and personal spaces people weave between inside and outside prison based on in depth ethnographic fieldwork oral and written sources archives and extensive institutional documentation this political anthropology book deals with carceral citizenships and subjectivities over time imprisonment has had profound effects on personal experiences on masculinities femininities gender relations parentality and intimacy woven like a web this story is built around places moments people and their testimonies in this book the reader will learn how to cl sp those moments when conflicts arise and they are challenged to learn the options they have for a deeper understanding they can study examples of sustainable peacebuilding from around the world the book will demonstrate how reconciliation efforts worked in south africa how peace literacy can teach english to youth in burundi and how an innovative women s village in kenya succeeds it will also explore the graduate institute of peace studies in south korea and then into china japan thailand and cambodia in the americas the book provides positive examples from brazil cuba nicaragua guatemala and costa rica this book will also consider case studies of sustainable peacebuilding in israel and palestine russia and ukraine and conclude with references to protests and public nonviolent campaigns for change and how the cl sp model can shine a light forward in his book on social closure jürgen mackert seeks to reinvigorate the idea of social closure and bring it back as a basic sociological concept for understanding the strategies and processes powerful groups use to improve their life chances at the expense of the less powerful to do this he puts forward a mechanism based explanatory approach that makes it possible to empirically study social closure through exclusion in the context of neoliberalism exploitation within global capitalism and elimination in the ongoing legacy of settler colonialism further he identifies two critical social mechanisms to explain how human beings are denied access to resources rights or critical networks and to bring power dynamics into closure analysis the impact of the covid 19 pandemic at the interlocking levels of politics economy and society have been different across regions states and societies in the case of the middle east and north africa which was already in the throes of intense tumult following the onset of the 2011 arab spring covid s blows have on the one hand followed the trajectory of some global patterns while at the same time playing out in regionally specific ways based on empirical country level analysis this volume brings together an international team of contributors seeking to untangle how covid 19 unfolds across the mena the analyses are framed through a contextual adaptation of ulrich beck s famous concept of risk society that pinpointed the negative consequences of modernity and its unbridled capitalism the book traces how this has come home in full force in the covid 19 pandemic the editors larbi sadiki and layla saleh use the term arab risk society they highlight short term and long term repercussions across the mena these include socio economic inequality a revitalized state of authoritarianism challenged by relentless democratic struggles but the analyses are attuned to problem solving research the ethnographies of the pandemic included in this book investigate transformations and coping mechanisms within each country case study they provide an ethically informed research praxis that can respond to the manifold crises crashing down upon mena politics and societies this timely volume critically assesses the state of education in palestine re framing the discourse on israel palestine through the lens of education and arguing for a paradigm shift in the way education in the region is studied managed and experienced foregrounding the voices commentaries and reflections of palestinians as well as touching on differing elements of educational experience that define palestinian identities the book highlights that educational change in palestine is inseparable from the need to change the politics and understanding of education in western societies chapters introduce the holistic concept of the lifeworld curriculum which proposes the idea that education cannot be conceived solely in relation to physical educational spaces but in addition should acknowledge the conceptual spaces of civil society communities and the world of work the basic structures of palestinian lives in order to reinforce the idea that circumstances teach ultimately challenging western educators to rethink their approaches to education and learning in order to build a stronger global platform for human rights democratic engagement and justice this book will be of value to scholars researchers and postgraduate students in international and comparative the israel yearbook on human rights an annual published under the auspices of the faculty of law of tel aviv university since 1971 is devoted to publishing studies by distinguished scholars in israel and other countries on human rights in peace and war with particular emphasis on problems relevant to the state of israel and the jewish people the yearbook also incorporates documentary materials relating to israel and the administered areas which are not otherwise available in english including summaries of judicial decisions compilations of legislative enactments and military proclamations volume 32 contains amongst others articles on the war on terrorism in this book hedi viterbo radically challenges our picture of law human rights and childhood both in and beyond the israel palestine context he reveals how israel rather than disregarding international law and children s rights has used them to hone and legitimize its violence against palestinians he exposes the human rights community s complicity in this situation due to its problematic assumptions about childhood its uncritical embrace of international law and its recurring emulation of israel s security discourse he examines how and to what effect both the state and its critics manufacture shape and weaponize the categories child and adult bridging disciplinary divides viterbo analyzes hundreds of previously unexamined sources many of which are not publicly available bold sophisticated and informative problematizing law rights and childhood in israel palestine provides unique insights into the ever tightening relationship between law children's rights and state violence at both the local and global levels the tenth in a series of yearbooks this edition contains articles on topical human rights issues as well as surveys of individual countries a new feature is that more attention is given to self-monitoring articles investigating the human rights policies of countries in the north on specific issues and sectors another feature is that more effort is given to collaboration between institutions in the north and the south in writing articles and surveys both will be strengthened in future editions the topics covered this year are development aid in support of indigenous peoples in latin america dutch experiences with the linkage of aid to human rights observance in mozambique and an evaluation of norway's human rights policies and aid with regard to the palestinian areas in the wake of the oslo agreement as a regular feature the yearbook assesses human rights trends in various countries of the south covering the full range from civil and political rights to economic social and cultural rights this year's edition contains surveys of cuba guatemala libya senegal vietnam and zimbabwe cuba libya and senegal are included for the first time the yearbook on human rights in developing countries is a joint project of the chr michelsen institute bergen the danish centre for human rights copenhagen the icelandic human rights center reykjavik the ludwig boltzmann institute of human rights vienna the netherlands institute of human rights utrecht the norwegian institute of human rights oslo and the raoul wallenberg institute of human rights and humanitarian law lund a palestinian state alongside a secure israel is the sine qua non of a stable peace between arabs and israelis and at this late date would realize a modicum of the palestinians moral and legal territorial rights roughly equal to those of the jews israelis and a long standing aspiration for self-determination a defense of the two-state option and a qualified defense of the oslo accords against islamist and radical jewish rejectionist critics is therefore offered besides satisfying palestinian aspirations palestinian statehood would help open the way to a comprehensive peace between the arabs and israel through a just negotiated settlement of the syrian lebanese israeli territorial disputes a comprehensive peace in turn should stimulate economic and cultural cooperation between israel and the arab countries the peace dividend lending it additional strength increased stability should also result from the hoped-for liberalization and democratization of the region's arab regimes in recent years as peace between israelis and palestinians has remained cruelly elusive scholars and activists have increasingly turned to south african history and politics to make sense of the situation in the early 1990s both south africa and israel began negotiating with their colonized populations south africans saw results the state was democratized and black south africans gained formal legal equality palestinians on the other hand won neither freedom nor equality and today israel remains a settler colonial state despite these different outcomes the transitions of the last twenty years have produced surprisingly similar socioeconomic changes in both regions growing inequality racialized poverty and advanced strategies for securing the powerful and policing the racialized poor neoliberal apartheid explores this paradox through an analysis of de colonization and neoliberal racial capitalism after a decade of research in the johannesburg and jerusalem regions andy clarno presents here a detailed ethnographic study of the precariousness of the poor in alexandra township the dynamics of colonization and enclosure in bethlehem the growth of fortress suburbs and private security in johannesburg and the regime of security coordination between the israeli military and the palestinian authority in the west bank the first comparative study of the changes in these two areas since the early 1990s the book addresses the limitations of liberation in south africa highlights the impact of neoliberal restructuring in palestine and argues that a new form of neoliberal apartheid has emerged in both contexts israel and palestine were worlds apart during the pandemic that claimed over five million lives globally while palestinians were forced to adopt crude survival measures and endure economic privations israel was praised as a vaccination world leader this book demonstrates how israel utilized the pandemic to tighten surveillance and control over palestine and the palestinians drawing on theories of settler colonialism and the concept of necropolitics the book is a vital testament to the reality of the israeli settler colonial project today the author uses case studies and interviews with palestinians from the gaza strip hebron kufr aqab and the jalazon refugee camp to understand the lived experiences of palestinians the newest colonial policies are discussed including how israel activated a counter terrorism database that could track citizens and ensure they adhered to lockdown regulations it also shows how israel destroyed palestinian infrastructure essential for water sanitation and hygiene leaving palestinians unable to fight the virus the book shows that for palestinians the pandemic was simply the latest in a long line of national catastrophes in a context where settler colonialism prevails the present volume draws on the experience of the summer school held in august 2019 in ohrid where graduate students and experienced scholars met from germany albania serbia macedonia and croatia all contributions discuss original empirical research on texts that construe conflicting truths in the idest sense either from academic or from journalistic writing mainly from a south eastern european perspective the contributions can also serve as a general model for open and critical international and intercultural academic discourse in joint teaching research and publishing prisoner enfranchisement remains one of the few contested electoral issues in twenty first century democracies it is at the intersection of punishment and representative government many jurisdictions remain divided on whether or not prisoners should be allowed access to the franchise this book investigates the experience of prisoner enfranchisement in the republic of ireland it examines the issue in a comparative context beginning by locating prisoner enfranchisement in a theoretical framework exploring the arguments for and against allowing prisoners to vote drawing on global developments in jurisprudence and penal policy it examines the background to and wider significance of this change in the law using the irish experience to examine the issue in a wider context this book argues that the legal position concerning the voting rights of the imprisoned reveals wider historical political and social influences in the treatment of those confined in penal institutions anna baltzer a young jewish american went to the west bank to discover the realities of daily life for palestinians under the occupation what she found would change her outlook on the conflict forever she wrote this book to give voice to the stories of the people who welcomed her with open arms as their lives crumbled around them for five months baltzer lived and worked with farmers palestinian and israeli activists and the families of political prisoners traveling with them across endless checkpoints and roadblocks to reach hospitals universities and olive groves baltzer witnessed firsthand the environmental devastation brought on by expanding settlements and outposts and the destruction wrought by israel s security fence which separates many families from each other their communities their land and basic human services what emerges from baltzer s journal is not a sensationalist tale of suicide bombers and conspiracies but a compelling and inspiring description of the trials of daily life under the occupation
