offers fresh insights and empirical evidence on the producers, consumers, and content of news 2.0. The second generation of news, news 2.0, made distributed and consumed on the internet, particularly social media, has forever changed the news business. News 2.0, journalists, audiences, and news on social media examines the ways in which news production is sometimes biased and how social networking sites, SNS, have become highly personalized news platforms that reflect users' preferences and worldviews. Drawing from empirical evidence, this book provides a critical and analytical assessment of recent developments, major debates, and contemporary research on news, social media, and news organizations worldwide. Author Ahmed Al Rawi highlights how, despite the proliferation of news on social media, consumers are often confined within filter bubbles, emphasizing non-Western media outlets. The text explores the content, audiences, and producers of news 2.0 and addresses direct impacts on democracy, politics, and institutions. Topics include viral news on SNS, celebrity journalists, and branding, fake news, discourse, and the emergence of mobile news apps as ethnic mediascapes, integrating computational journalism methods and cross-national comparative research. This unique volume examines different aspects of news bias, such as news content and production, emphasizing news values theory. It assesses how international media organizations, including CNN, BBC, and RT, address non-Western news audiences, discusses concepts such as audience fragmentation on social media, viral news, networked flak, clickbait, and internet bots, and employs novel techniques in text mining, such as topic modeling, to provide a holistic overview of news selection. News 2.0, Journalists, Audiences, and News on Social Media, is an innovative and illuminating resource for undergraduate and graduate students of media communication and journalism studies, as well as media and communication scholars, media practitioners, journalists, and general readers with interest in the subject.

In Pakistan, religious talk shows emerged as a popular television genre following the 2002 media liberalization reforms. Since then, these shows have become important platforms where ideas about Islam and religious authority in Pakistan are developed and argued. In religious television and pious authority in Pakistan, Taha Kazi reveals how these talk shows mediate changes in power, belief, and practice. She also identifies the sacrifices and compromises that religious scholars feel compelled to make in order to ensure their presence on television. These scholars, of varying doctrinal and educational backgrounds, including madrasa-educated scholars and self-taught celebrity preachers, are given screen time to debate and issue religious edicts on the authenticity and contemporary application of Islamic concepts and practices. In response, viewers are sometimes allowed to call in live with questions. Kazi maintains that these featured debates inspire viewers to reevaluate the status of scholarly edicts, thereby fragmenting religious authority by exploring how programming decisions inadvertently affect viewer engagements with Islam. Religious Television and Pious Authority in Pakistan looks beyond the revivalist impact of religious media and highlights the prominence of religious talk shows in disrupting expectations about faith.

When I began a survey of source material for this book in the early 1980s I was somewhat surprised by the paucity of sources relating to socio-political dynamics in modern Saudi Arabia both in European languages and Arabic. Thus William Rugh's article 'Emergence of a New Middle Class in Saudi Arabia 1973' for instance remains a classic to this day in the field of social anthropology. I found only a handful of serious studies of the Saudi population produced by Western and Arab scholars. Katakura, Lancaster, Cole, Shamekh and Tfamzah's outdated work 'Other Sources in Arabic' largely dealt with the Kingdom's geography and tribal division. Past history to the twentieth century, the reign of Abd al-Aziz ibn Saud and the rise of the Wahhabi movement and its impact on the Arabian Peninsula, the contribution of Saudi scholars of good standing to the subject was minimal. As the Saudi modern elites were beginning to emerge in the middle of the century and only lately have they begun to publish worthwhile scholarly studies of their society and government, studies inhibited unfortunately by the character of the regime and its strict censorship laws.

With extensive international changes taking place in the last three decades such as the collapse of the bipolar world system, the dismemberment of the Soviet Union, the declining hegemony of the US, the lack of global leadership and the rise of challenging global powers like any other regional power, Turkey has initiated a comprehensive conceptual and theoretical transformation and a process of restructuring in its foreign policy. Understanding Turkey has gone beyond the typical realist understanding and begun to develop a new foreign policy perspective that considers moral values while some consider this new perspective as a civilizational approach, others call it moral realism while some consider this transformation as an axis shift, others consider it as the normalization of Turkey. This large-scale change in Turkish foreign policy during the governance of the AK Party has led the state leadership to search for reformulation of the Turkish grand strategy to achieve an influential role in international politics. Turkey has transformed its foreign policy orientation which can be analyzed within three complementary contexts: namely national, regional and international. Global first, Turkey has been experiencing groundbreaking changes in the national context.

under the leadership of recep tayyip erdoğan there has been a long term political stability which allowed turkey to take significant steps in foreign policy the strong personality of president erdoğan provided a convenient atmosphere to execute effective leadership diplomacy especially after the military coup attempt on july 15 2016 erdoğan has reformed the state structure by ending the traditional bureaucratic tutelage and consolidating the civilian and political administration after the reconciliation between the state and the people the greatest transformation was made in the redefinition of the responsibilities of turkish security the turkish national intelligence and the armed forces have abandoned their inward looking perspective and begun to act as real foreign policy actors this redefinition has increased turkey s hard power in the execution of foreign policy furthermore newly established state institutions such as the turkish cooperation and coordination agency tika presidency for turks abroad and related communities yurtdışı türkler ytb yunus emre institute and disaster and emergency management presidency afad have provided an enormous soft power capability for turkey during the last two decades turkey has greatly developed its defense industry which is one of the preconditions of following a relatively independent foreign policy turkey has begun to produce most of the ammunition weapons and especially the unmanned combat aerial vehicles ucavs required for its struggle against terrorism and for deterring external threats the production of native ucavs such as bayraktar tb2 bayraktar akinci tusaŞ anka and vestel karayel turkey has increased its military effectiveness both in its struggle against terrorism and in different regional crises such as syria libya and nagorno karabakh and now has the capacity to act alone and to pursue an ankara centered independent foreign policy second turkey has been seeking effective leadership in the regional context and is determined to eliminate vital threats emanating from non state actors beyond their borders turkey has carried out four effective military interventions into the north part of syria followed by efforts to improve its cooperation with both immediate and remote neighbors it has established strategic relations with some regional countries such as libya qatar and somalia while starting to take initiatives and thus has emerged as a regional game changer in the region it effectively reacts to regional projections of regional and global powers iranian and israeli expansionism destabilization efforts of saudi arabia and the united arab emirates on the one hand and develops its own regional projects on the other one of the most important priorities of turkey is regional stabilization therefore it has been following an active and non sectarian regional policy third turkey has been seeking a high level of autonomy and global status the country has been asking for the restoration and reformation of the global system on the one hand it invites the west to respect its own values and principles on the other hand it demands a more just and more inclusive international system for example asking for the reformation of international institutions such as the united nations one of the main indications of turkey s new political discourse is the motto crafted by turkish president erdoğan the world is bigger than five turkey desires more autonomy in international relations and therefore it developed a multi dimensional sectoral and diversified foreign policy orientation for this reason it tries to improve its relations with all global powers representing different political perspectives such as the u s russia and china in order to extend its outreach to and initiate new openings in other parts of the world turkey has been providing humanitarian and developmental aid to many countries and thus is increasing its soft power worldwide in other words it is trying to be one of the global players and to set the global agenda therefore turkey has been trying to be active in all related regional and global international organizations all in all turkey has been working to materialize its grand strategy at three different layers namely the quest for an independent and ankara centered based foreign policy understanding the quest for regional leadership and the quest for an autonomous and effective global status turkey has recently taken many critical measures by increasing its soft power through which it provides humanitarian and developmental aid worldwide its hard power by developing its national defense industry and military interventions to regional crises and its productivity power with the successes in industrial and technological sectors taking all these developments into consideration this new issue of insight turkey focuses on the transformation of turkey s grand strategy three commentaries and six articles will help the readers to understand better turkey s current position at a regional and global level in the light of the changes the international system has gone through hasan yükselen s article explores the ill suited features of mainstream debates and theorizing from a turkish perspective yükselen argues that turkey has a long pursued grand strategy but new concepts can enhance its ability to strategize and can enrich the recently emerged vibrant debates exploring turkey s grand strategy how compatible is turkey s grand strategy with the grand strategies of global great powers a crucial question Şener aktürk s study seeks to answer the article provisionally concludes that the turkish grand strategy seems to be most compatible or least incompatible with the british grand strategy followed by the u s whereas turkish and french and especially russian grand strategies seem particularly incompatible by claiming that the international order significant transformation enforced turkey to relocate its international position murat yeşiltaş and ferhat piriñçi analyze how turkey should adjust its grand strategy under the changing international order and protect its important interests by developing a comprehensive grand strategy the analysis of turkey s grand strategy would be incomplete if no special focus was put on its bilateral relations with global or regional actors such as russia middle east north africa mena and african countries alperen kürşad zengin and İlyas topsakal explain the common aspects of the grand strategies of turkey and russia this piece evaluates the policies of both countries in syria libya and the south caucasus where the interests of both intersect and occasionally conflict today soft power plays an important role in advancing states foreign policy goals and turkey pays special attention to the development and maintenance of its soft power ali omidi s commentary uses a descriptive analysis approach to address the components of turkey s soft power in the mena region in the years 2011 2020 the second decade of ak party governance turkish african relations have consistently exhibited strong growth since ankara declared 2005 as the year of africa in this regard abdinor dahir s commentary argues that turkey s growing footprint in africa will likely continue to produce positive results for both sides within the same scope abdennour toumi examines how algeria turkey s ambitious strategic rapprochement will affect france s sahel policy the commentary reviews the ongoing diplomatic tensions between algiers and paris following president emmanuel macron s cutting back on visas granted to maghreb citizens and his comments on the existence of an algerian nation before the french invasion and later colonization in 1832 in terms of economic diplomacy kaan yiğenoğlu investigates the turkey uk free trade agreement which came into force in 2021 yiğenoğlu analyzes the economic relations between the two countries and examines the details of the agreement in the context of the changes that it provides this issue of insight turkey through off topic pieces covers very significant issues related to karabakh war gulf rivalry and developments in the balkans examining the attitudes of international actors during the 44 day karabakh war is important as they affected the international balances in the caucasus nazim jafarov and araz aslanlı focus on russia s attitude as it was of special importance the article carefully examines the policy followed by russia during and after the 44 day karabakh war and its main and parallel pillars by focusing on turkey as a rising drone power the role and impact of turkey s military support especially its drones on azerbaijan s nagorno karabakh victory is highlighted by hülya kınık and sinem Çelik this article argues that turkey s political diplomatic and military contributions to azerbaijan will likely be discussed on the global agenda for years to come with regard to the recent developments in the gulf mustafa menshawy and simon mabon s commentary argues that the saudi qatari tensions lie in conflicting perspectives about the role of political islam within the fabric of both states and their actions regionally menshawy and mabon believe that the rivalry stems from contrasting relations between political and religious elites in each country which has taken on increasing political importance in tensions between riyadh and doha meanwhile mehmet rakipoğlu s commentary focuses on another dimension as he provides an analysis of the role of the gulf over the sudanese transition period concluding that the uae and saudi arabia using petrodollars as a tool are directly engaging in sudan s transition period kemal İnat and melih yıldız in their article discuss the rise of china in the light of economic and military data and what the challenge from china means for the global leadership of the u s in this context an answer has been sought to the question of what will be the consequences of the rise of china in terms of the international political system the last off topic article written by andrej semenov analyzes the washington agreement wa in the context of eu efforts to facilitate the dialogue between kosovo and serbia semenov claims that the agreement commits kosovo to the mini schengen and brings a novelty into the dynamics of the belgrade pristina relationship with one more year coming to an end we are pleased to present to our readers yet another insightful issue of insight turkey that has attempted to bring a comprehensive analysis of turkey s grand strategy and highlight its current regional and international role and status hopefully this issue will provide the foothold for all those interested in defining turkey s grand strategy we are looking forward to providing you with more next as egypt retreats from its newly elected government and syria moves from one crisis to another this book s reflection on the arab spring could not be more timely monshipouri s account of the role of emotion solidarity and online activism is informed by several trips to the region that continue to this day the uprisings were fueled by a demographic surge of young people unable to find employment and frustrated by the lack of freedom and now the elected regime has been ousted for failing to address these continuing circumstances while modern technologies and social media may have brought new politics to the streets organization on the ground trumps the enthusiasm of young protesters when it comes to shaping a country s political future how to turn elections into democracy in these post conflict societies continues to be a daunting task especially in countries with a longstanding history of military involvement in politics now experiencing a resurgence this book addresses all of these subjects in an engaging and accessible narrative key features of the text the arab uprisings of the early 2010s raised hopes for the development of more democratic structures and better living conditions for millions in the region instead they were followed by authoritarian backlash civil wars economic collapse and food and energy insecurity young people are often the ones hit hardest by the conjunction of these problems how do they cope with insecurities and growing uncertainties and what drives them to pursue their own dreams in spite of being disenfranchised the dispossessed generation is the most comprehensive in depth study of young people in the mena region to date providing invaluable insights into their self perceptions and life chances in this volume an interdisciplinary team of researchers assess a survey of 12 000 sixteen to thirty year olds from algeria egypt iraq jordan lebanon libya morocco palestine sudan syria tunisia and yemen they illuminate the extent to which young people engage with their societies and mine new opportunities from a multiplicity of crises understanding world media understanding world media sets out to mirror world media and the freedom it enjoyed across the globe in about 200 countries while media is an important part of academic research concerns have been raised globally on its content intent and freedom of expression to the extent that even as per the data compiled by reporters without borders democratic india ranks below par at 138 in the world press freedom index 2018 out of the 180 listed nations though it is a question of debate and discussions to what extent media in india is considered free or under censorship when india is emerging as a global power with over 55 percent of its population is under 35 years of age interest in the world community and media is growing leaps and bounds it is in this context that this book magnifies its mirror to bring facts about the status and understanding of media in the world for any book like this it will always have its challenges to cover subjects like media in a nutshell but for today this book is timely and relevant it is a balanced and thoughtful effort to present such a comprehensive book in a crisp and concise manner as it is difficult to get experts on various countries to write on their respective domains we have put our utmost effort to consolidate all necessary information and analysis required for this collection and we are very hopeful that it will serve its purpose fulfill the void and information gap about the world media understanding world media is structured around two clear themes the status of media in various countries and its freedom of expression it is divided into five parts covering vast geographical areas in asia europe the americas africa and australia oceania
