This title was first published in 2001. The primary objective of this book is to provide an analytical understanding of the nature, dynamics and complexity of the politics of economic regionalism through the prism of Sierra Leone in the economic community of West African States (ECOWAS). The book also discusses the following issues: the evolution of economic regionalism in West Africa and the conceptual framework for analysis; the expansion of economic regionalism; developments within the West Africa sub-region with that of the transformation of the global economy and international political system; political, economic and security developments within ECOWAS and the civil war in Sierra Leone.

una buena y racional información para inmigrantes gobiernos sociedad civil comunidades y sector privado puede ayudar a maximizar los beneficios y minimizar los costes de la migración en términos sociales políticos y económicos

With the present book we intend to give an account of Turkish foreign policy written by Turkish scientists and decision makers up to now. Countless treatises on the foreign policy of the Republic of Turkey have been published within the Anglo-American language area. The specialized literature is particularly extensive in the domain of Turkish European policy as well as on the Europeans' foreign policy towards Turkey and on security and defense policy. We are primarily interested in the self-perception of Turkish decision makers and advisors who, as the scientific and bureaucratic elite, have a significant influence on the conception of Turkish foreign policy. We are interested in the elites' priorities in shaping the country's foreign policy. We hope that readers will be able to read the ideas, hopes and fears between the lines of the contributions in order to form ideas for themselves. We also intend to bring the Turkish perspective to sectors outside the university. Moreover, we intend to draw an outline of scientific literature by means of which readers may immerse themselves in the subject.

This comprehensive volume examines the future effectiveness of regional institutions as well as key questions concerning the attempts to overcome ongoing serious problems of security governance and poor economic performance in the Pacific. What is obvious from this collection is that a new and stronger commitment to overcoming national problems is required through regional cooperation. The volume is highly suited to courses on international political economy, security and regional cooperation.

Africa has long been a focal point of global competition driven by its young, dynamic population and abundant natural resources. The shifting international order has further intensified the presence of both global and regional powers on the continent. In this context, Turkey has distinguished itself by adopting a unique approach: the model partnership emphasizing strategic partnerships and a human-centered development-driven strategy. This approach has garnered significant attention, positioning Turkey as a key actor in shaping Africa's future and fostering sustainable, mutually beneficial relationships. Turkey has taken significant steps in recent years to strengthen its relations with Africa and play a more active role in this context. Turkey's Africa policy is gradually developing with positive momentum.

africa policy is addressed in a wide range of economic diplomatic military defense security intelligence cultural and humanitarian dimensions although the african continent is addressed as a holistic policy it has various regional and sub regional systems in this context first of all north africa and sub saharan africa are evaluated as two main regions with different strategic priorities in t[?] rkiye s policy development processes therefore sub saharan africa is divided into various regional systems such as west africa east africa southern africa central africa and the sahel belt indeed each region of sub saharan africa has differences such as separate dynamics cultural structures historical experiences civilizations ethnic structures and social dynamics apart from this each region also has its sub regional systems in this context sub regional systems such as the horn of africa the rift valley the great lakes region and the lake chad basin stand out in pursuing more strategic policies t[?] rkiye strives to offer region specific solutions that take into account local dynamics by following different strategies in these regions and sub regional systems as needed in this context the strategies developed by t[?] rkiye for each region in africa include an approach that emphasizes the need to take regional differences into account and is based on cooperation with local partners and the local people of each country this situation allows t[?] rkiye to establish more effective long term and sustainable relations by taking into account the dynamics in africa although t[?] rkiye s relations with the african continent continued at a certain level throughout the republican period these relations were generally limited and low profile however in the last twenty years visionary and effective steps have begun to be taken in t[?] rkiye s africa policy during this period t[?] rkiye adopted comprehensive strategy to strengthen and diversify its relations with the continent and has made significant progress in economic cooperation humanitarian aid diplomatic representation and security policies president recep tayyip erdo[?] an stands out as a driving force in t[?] rkiye s increasing engagement towards africa at the same time the ministry of foreign affairs mfa is the primary manager and implementer of the africa policy the active duties of the experienced diplomats of the turkish foreign ministry in africa for the last twenty years have made it possible to implement and coordinate t[?] rkiye s africa policy successfully apart from these actors at the core t[?] rkiye s africa policy has a wide range of institutions and tools these institutions and tools consist of elements that can be combined as smart power in addition institutional platforms also have an essential place in t[?] rkiye s relations with africa in this context the t[?] rkiye africa partnership summit which was last held for the third time in 2021 the t[?] rkiye africa media summit organized by the presidency s directorate of communications in 2022 and the t[?] rkiye africa business and economy forum which was last held for the fourth time in 2023 are essential platforms in addition the strong participation of african countries in the third antalya diplomacy forum adf held last year shows that t[?] rkiye s diplomatic relations with the countries of the continent are deepening and the importance given to t[?] rkiye s africa policy is increasing as well as the interest of african countries in t[?] rkiye by making its relations with african countries more visible on such multilateral platforms t[?] rkiye strengthens its interactions and engagement with different regions of the continent and reinforces its positive image towards africa in the international arena in this context the turkish cooperation and coordination agency t[?] ka plays an active role in the continent with humanitarian aid and development projects while the turkish maarif foundation tmv operates in the field of education the african culture house and handicrafts market africa culture house established in 2016 under the patronage of first lady emine erdo[?] an and the yunus emre institute yee operate within the framework of cultural diplomacy in addition institutions such as the turkish religious foundation tdv and the turkish red crescent carry out work to increase the quality of life for the local population with humanitarian aid and social support projects furthermore turkish airlines thy which brings the continent together with the world and media organizations such as anadolu agency aa and trt afrika which make the continent s voice heard to the world allow t[?] rkiye s principled model to be introduced to the world and the t[?] rkiye brand to expand its sphere of influence in t[?] rkiye s africa policy investments by the turkish private sector and the presence of the business world on the continent also play an important role in this context investment and trade forums through business organizations and chambers of commerce primarily the foreign economic relations board de[?] k strengthen t[?] rkiye s economic and trade relations in addition t[?] rkiye has the advantage of not having a colonial past and its own unique turkish model partnership in its policies towards the continent the turkish model covers many different areas such as humanitarian aid development cooperation security cooperation cultural diplomacy education and capacity building as stated above africa stands out as a continent that attracts the attention of global powers with its young and dynamic population rich natural resources and strategic location in this context t[?] rkiye aims to contribute to regional development and strengthen its interests by acting within the framework of the win win and equal partnership principles in its relations with the continent the multifaceted relations that t[?] rkiye has developed in diplomatic and economic terms also aim to contribute to the peace and stability of the continent in this direction the turkish model offers a model based on cooperation and mutual benefit unlike the competitive and generally unilateral policies of other actors in the continent furthermore t[?] rkiye aims to support sustainable development in africa by adopting a long term partnership perspective instead of achieving short term results with humanitarian aid and development projects in addition approaches to peace and stability on the continent cooperation and sharing of experiences are also developing a different relationship between t[?] rkiye and african countries in particular the instabilities experienced in t[?] rkiye s recent history and the fight against terrorism as well as the most recent coup attempt on july 15 2016 have caused t[?] rkiye to transform its security policies in many areas especially after july 15 t[?] rkiye has taken a determined stance against all threats it perceives domestically and beyond its borders and increased the operational capacity of its military this situation has enabled t[?] rkiye to successfully emerge from the struggle it has entered into with actors who aimed to confine t[?] rkiye to its geography or even only within its borders and to focus its energy on domestic politics therefore the experiences t[?] rkiye has gained in this process and also in its relations with african countries have closely followed the breakthroughs it has made in the context of the defense industry t[?] rkiye has restructured its security and defense policies over a wide range from internal security to cross border operations and has begun to share its experiences in this area with african countries t[?] rkiye s transfer of its experience in ensuring security and stability to african countries is not limited to military and defense cooperation there is also information and experience sharing in areas such as combating terrorism preventing radicalization and restructuring the security sector t[?] rkiye organizes military training security consultancy and police training with many african countries especially somalia thus strengthening local security structures in addition t[?] rkiye s counter terrorism strategies and security reforms are a source of inspiration for many african countries and t[?] rkiye s experiences have a positive impact on the continent while these security cooperations of t[?] rkiye increase mutual trust in its relations with the countries of the continent they also contribute to t[?] rkiye s positioning as a regional security actor within this framework it can be stated that t[?] rkiye s presence especially in regions under threat from instability and terrorism such as the horn of africa and the sabel region makes significant contributions to international efforts to ensure peace and security t[?] rkiye aims to increase the welfare of the local population and support regional stability through diplomatic initiatives and humanitarian aid projects carried out in these regions deepening t[?] rkiye s relations with africa is of critical importance in terms of both economic development and increasing its influence in the international arena in this context the main objective of t[?] rkiye s africa policy is to contribute to the continent s economic development while diversifying t[?] rkiye s strategic partnerships and becoming a more effective actor on a global scale in its relations with africa t[?] rkiye is not limited to trade and investment but also to cooperating in areas such as ensuring security and stability humanitarian aid and education thus reinforcing its presence on the continent in particular security cooperation projects and military training programs developed to contribute to africa s peace and security demonstrate t[?] rkiye s commitment to the stability of the continent africa is becoming increasingly central to t[?] rkiye s strategic priorities indeed in our age where the century of t[?] rkiye and the african century are being experienced together the vision put forward by t[?] rkiye in its african policy will lay the foundations for a strong and mutually beneficial cooperation between t[?] rkiye and african countries and will contribute to the further strengthening of these relations in the future this edition of insight turkey delves into the intricacies of t[?] rkiye s africa relations within the framework of regional organizations and bilateral engagements with a focus on the historical backdrop and recent advancements in t[?] rkiye s africa policy furthermore the current edition of insight turkey touches upon the ongoing massacre in gaza that commenced on october 7 aiming to scrutinize the latest developments and multifaceted aspects of the escalating conflict with this understanding this issue contains eight research articles and five commentaries three of which are off topic in the first commentary ibrahim mulushewa eshete discusses t[?] rkiye s increasing importance and its focus on the east african region and its relations with international organizations such as the intergovernmental authority on development igad and the east african community eac examining the opportunities and challenges that characterize its interactions with these regions assessing the potential benefits and areas of friction in advancing these partnerships in the subsequent commentary patrick maluki and anwar abdifatab bashir analyze the evolution and impact of terrorist networks in the horn of africa with a particular emphasis on somalia and its surrounding region additionally they underscore the necessity of a multifaceted approach to counter terrorism that integrates military political and diplomatic strategies to address both the immediate security threats and the underlying causes of extremism in the first research article mesut [?] zcan and mehmet k[?] se delve into the core elements shaping t[?] rkiye s african outreach from a historical perspective they evaluate t[?] rkiye s africa policy decision making process emphasizing a bipartisan autonomous rational and pragmatic approach as well as the principles of mutual approval additionally the authors argue that mutual recognition and respect play a vital role in t[?] rkiye s africa policy positively impacting its relations with african countries and fostering substantial partnerships in the next research article tun[?] demirta[?] and ferhat pirin[?] i argue that t[?] rkiye s africa policy is shaped by a comprehensive pragmatic multi dimensional and multi stakeholder strategy and a collaborative approach that is well matched to the needs of the region in their study the authors aim to examine security relations in sub saharan africa from a constructivist perspective focusing on the sub regions of east africa west africa and the sabel belt demirta[?] and pirin[?] who claim that t[?] rkiye s security cooperation in sub saharan africa encompasses a holistic strategy that goes beyond purely military ties and supports regional peace and stability emphasize that t[?] rkiye is significantly strengthening its position in sub saharan africa and contributing to the regional security architecture by developing and strengthening these efforts then kaan devecio[?] lu analyses t[?] rkiye s humanitarian diplomacy and development cooperation strategies towards africa within a theoretical and conceptual framework and assesses their impact and importance on the continent devecio[?] lu emphasizes that t[?] rkiye s humanitarian diplomacy strategy based on mutual benefit and sustainable development goals has effectively increased its positive image and influence in africa in a similar vein g[?] khan kavak focuses on media relations within the scope of t[?] rkiye s multifaceted policy in africa kavak aims to address the transformation of the press and media in africa and examine t[?] rkiye s initiatives in the african media landscape particularly since 2005 arguing that t[?] rkiye has taken various initiatives in the media sector especially since 2008 and that these relations have shown an upward trend until the 2020s

the author claims that more steps need to be taken especially in areas such as the employment of african media professionals cooperation in the media sector and the production of more content related to africa in our subsequent research articles the authors mostly evaluate the continent with regional organizations while abdullah imam haruna touches upon t[?] rkiye africa relations with the continental organization the african union au and the sub regional organization the economic community of west african states ecowas ahmed badawi mustapha completes the missing dimension of t[?] rkiye s relations with west africa by addressing niger burkina faso and mali which have left ecowas in a complementary manner in his research article haruna examines t[?] rkiye s changing foreign policy approach towards sub saharan african regional blocs with particular emphasis on their political cultural and economic aspects he stresses that t[?] rkiye s strategic engagement with influential regional organizations such as the au and ecowas among others reflects its broader ambition to expand its influence and develop multifaceted partnerships across the african continent on the other hand ahmed badawi mustapha evaluates t[?] rkiye s relations with the newly established alliance of sabel states aes consisting of mali niger and burkina faso within the boundaries of security engagements economic connections and humanitarian cultural interactions starting to focus on bilateral relations zainul abiddeen jibril examines the partnership between nigeria and t[?] rkiye two countries that have had significant official diplomatic relations since 1960 but whose historical ties date back much further considering the economic cooperation between nigeria and t[?] rkiye jibril noted that their shared strategic partnership has fostered a significant development of bilateral trade between them while also asserting that another critical dimension of their partnership is defense cooperation with t[?] rkiye which is increasingly becoming an important security partner the author also claims that the humanitarian and socio cultural aspects of their partnership facilitate the further development of their relationship lastly hasan ayd[?] n and yi liu argue that the african continent which has become the focal point of international relations today attracts the attention of external actors with various approaches and causes rising international competition in the continent in this context the authors aim to answer the questions of what are the differences between traditional and alternative approaches what are the main factors shaping china s and t[?] rkiye s alternative approaches to africa and what are the practical similarities in beijing and ankara s approaches to african countries by addressing the similarities between t[?] rkiye s and t[?] rkiye s alternative approaches to africa in conclusion in their study ayd[?] n and liu argue that china and t[?] rkiye despite some differences in their relations with the continental countries have an alternative stance to the western centric approach in african competition in addition we feature three off topic commentaries focusing on the recent developments in gaza and the middle east region firstly ramzy baroud claimed that africa in contrast to many arab states has taken steps towards internationalizing the issue by raising its voice against the ongoing massacre since october 7 and that these initiatives have subsequently been supported by south american states based on this argument the author analyzes the evolution of the global south s solidarity with palestine since the establishment of israel focusing more on the african continent in his commentary secondly sad[?] k abu amr addresses the impact of hamas internal decisions and their impact on foreign relations and the regional changes the movement will cause following the assassination of former hamas political bureau head ismail haniyeh and the election of yabya sinwar as the new hamas leader last but not least barbara slavin examines the reasons behind iran s decision not to immediately retaliate against israel following the assassination of hamas political leader ismail haniyeh in tehran on july 31 2024 and considers how the ongoing war will impact u s iran relations and the new opportunities and challenges that the gaza war poses for iran overall the current edition of insight turkey undertakes a comprehensive examination of t[?] rkiye s africa policy encompassing bilateral regional continental and global perspectives with a specific focus on the past two decades additionally in the context of the ongoing gaza conflict in the middle east we are pleased to present three off topic commentaries that offer an in depth analysis of recent developments pertaining to gaza and the wider region in this special edition our objective is to furnish our readers with valuable insights through comprehensive deliberations and a range of perspectives on the aforementioned subjects recent generations have experienced dramatic improvements in the quality of human life across the globe wars between states are fought less frequently and are less lethal food is more plentiful and more easily accessed in most parts of the world birthrates are down and life expectancy up significantly fewer people live in extreme poverty relative to the overall population statistics would argue that the human race has never before flourished as it has in this moment and yet even with this progress we face a number of seemingly intractable challenges to the welfare of both states and individuals including governmental instability undermining the lives of citizens both within and beyond their borders persistent and recurring intrastate conflict due to ineffective conflict management strategies marginally successful development efforts and growing income inequality both within and between nations as a result of uncoordinated and ineffective global development strategies internecine conflict in multiethnic societies manifested by exclusion discrimination and ultimately violence the inevitable consequence of an insufficient focus on managing the inherent tensions in diverse societies global climate change with the possibility of catastrophic long term consequences following an inability to effectively come to terms with and respond to the impact of human activity on our environment these challenges require a newly collaborative intentional and systematic approach this book offers a blueprint for how to get there calling for increased leadership responsibility clarity of mission and empowerment of states and individuals it is designed to transform lofty but often vague agendas into concrete measurable progress it believes in the capacity of humanity to rise to the occasion to come together to address these increasingly critical global problems and offers one way forward this book examines the growing interdependence between asean and korea and the political and economic realities governing the relationship leading experts from asean and korea discuss the emerging issues in areas of domestic and regional security environments non traditional security regional trade arrangements korean relations with the new asean member states and the prospects of community building with special reference to the roles of korea and asean it also provides a serious and thought provoking evaluation of future asean korea relations in light of the growing trend towards east asian regionalism the sixth edition of africa in world politics focuses on challenges african states face in constructing viable political economies in contexts both of familiar domestic challenges and an unprecedented mix of engagements opportunities and threats emanating from a turbulent and rapidly changing international order this text including new chapters on nigeria and the influence of party politics on economic development remains an invaluable resource for students of african politics seeking to navigate the continent s complex political and economic landscapes revised chapters consider both the extent and the limits of continued healthy growth rates in many countries the impacts of investments by china and other brics countries plateaus and some reversals in progress on human rights and democratization dimensions of chronic state weakness deepened by insurgencies including some that are connected to al qaeda and the islamic state and peacebuilding efforts struggling to uphold responsible sovereignty in the sudans the great lakes region and elsewhere regardless of its outcome the iraq war has had a transformative effect on the middle east to equip u s policymakers to better manage the war s long term consequences the authors analyzed its effects on the regional balance of power local perceptions of u s credibility the domestic stability of neighboring states and trends in terrorism after conducting extensive interviews in the region and drawing from an array of local media sources the sino russian relationship has experienced several permutations in recent decades as both states have undergone radical domestic changes this analysis of the new evolving relationship addresses global strategy energy politics national security and central asian links how the west african ebola epidemic was transformed from an urgent and distant tragedy into an existential threat to american lives establishing the dynamics that would later dominate the us response to epidemics such as covid 19 in 2014 and 2015 the viral ebola epidemic in west africa inspired breathless us media coverage and became the subject of heated public debate over just how to understand the security issue that the outbreak presented was it a security concern because of the lives at risk in west africa or because of its threat to regional and global stability or was it potentially a threat to the american people in more than a health crisis jessica kirk reveals how these varied positions spoke to divisions within the american public concerning how we think about and respond to uncertainty competing expertise and securitization kirk insightfully examines how experts in different fields offered conflicting assessments of the risks posed by ebola and then goes on to analyze how the us press undermined the authority of the public health experts who accurately predicted that the virus posed little danger to americans reading the media coverage of the ebola epidemic as a case study in the biopolitics of fear kirk considers how the us response reflected not only anxieties over globalization but also long held narratives about the dark continent finally kirk shows how the us and global public response to the ebola outbreak challenged traditional models of securitization and identifies patterns that have tragically recurred with subsequent epidemics such as covid 19 and monkeypox with the end of the cold war and the subsequent new regional alignments american foreign policy and influence in the asia pacific region face a major turning point in this book ten north american specialists from various disciplines reconceptualize the forces shaping the new pacific community originally published in 1994 in 1989 poland hungary and czechoslovakia began to cooperate as a regional grouping in the warsaw treaty organisation wto with the primary objective to cooperate with western organisations they have also worked to dismantle the wto and the cmea since 1991 they have been regarded as the visegrad group which now includes the slovak republic as well as the newly named czech republic the subtitle reflects the author's belief that in comparison with other who states this group of four nations are on a fast track in their objective of being a member of nato it has been said many times that the human future is clouded by multiple and mutually interacting problems while in the 19th century we had the luxury of believing in almost automatic progress an onward and upward assumption that belief has been shattered by two world wars more than 150 smaller ones the invention of weapons of mass destruction increasing degradation of the environment both by pollution and resource exhaustion i e adding bads and subtracting goods from our natural endowment a horrendous and increasing gap between rich and poor within and between nations explosions of racism and chauvinistic nationalism increasing use of torture as a police method totalitarian regimes repeated episodes of genocide not a picture of progress toward a better world and yet we have not quite lost faith in the human potential for more beneficial and harmonious development this volume collects articles on the law of armed conflict and the use of force from the max planck encyclopedia of public international law to facilitate easy access to content from the leading reference work in international law this collection examines change within the major regional organisations of the asia pacific the asian development bank adb the association of southeast asian nations asean asia pacific economic cooperation apec and the asean regional forum arf it has two simultaneous foci the nature of institutional change in regional organisations and the process of regionalism in the asia pacific it combines the views of both officials and practitioners providing new insights into both its major questions

this book studies relevant actors and practices of conflict intervention by african regional organizations and their intimate connection to space making addressing a major gap regarding what actually happens within and around these organizations based on extensive empirical research it argues that those intervention practices are essentially spatializing practices based on particular spatial imaginations contributing to the continuous construction and formatting of regional spaces as well as to ordering relations between different regional spaces analyzing the field of developing practices of conflict intervention by the economic community of west african states ecowas and the african union au the book contributes a new theory oriented analytical approach to study african regional organizations ros and the complex dynamics of african peace and security based on insights from critical geography as such it helps to close an empirical gap with regard to the internal modes of operation of african ros as well as the lack of their theorization it demonstrates that contrary to most accounts intervention practices of african ros have been diverse and complexly interrelated involving different actors within and around these organizations and are essentially tied to the space making this book will be of key interest to students and scholars of african politics governance peace and security studies international or regional organizations and more broadly to comparative regionalism international relations and international studies how does australia's unique geographical cultural and historical position influence its approach to foreign policy what key challenges does australia face on the world stage and how can it overcome them reflecting the messy reality of foreign policy decision making this book helps you to understand the changes and continuities in australia's approach for example does the us withdrawal from vietnam in 1973 and collapse of south vietnam continue to cast a shadow over australian foreign policy or is it relevant only in understanding the dynamics of the cold war using an australian strategic culture framework o keefe sheds light on the characteristics that make australia behave in a way different to any other country and equips you with analytic skills to understand the main debates such as in what sense could australia be seen as a good international citizen have national interests trumped global responsibilities how does the intersection between civil society and public opinion interact with foreign policy making this book is essential reading if you are a student of australian foreign policy as well as of broader australian domestic politics and international relations west african worlds provides a critical assessment of social economic and political change in africa's most populous and arguably most externally focused region with an emphasis on globalisation and modernisation case studies and commentary are integrated throughout to highlight the concerns and issues of the region enriched by an impressive mix of west african voices this text combines theory and application with policy and practice to address socio economic change the pursuit of livelihoods and development within west africa this edited volume approaches regionalism as one potential pattern in a changing global order since the end of the cold war different forms of territorialization have emerged and we are confronted with an increasing number and variety of actors that are establishing regional projects this volume offers an innovative contribution to the study of this new complexity by exploring constellations of regional actors spatial scales and imaginations beyond state centred perspectives as well as on multiple often overlapping levels the chapters analyse the emergence trajectories and outcomes of regionalisms from the perspective of the global south specifically concentrating on regional projects in latin america and africa but also in the asia pacific they attempt to identify the specific conditions and junctures of different forms of region making in their external global and internal local national dimensions the volume also places special emphasis on interactions spatial entanglements and comparisons between regionalisms in different parts of the world by expanding beyond the perspective of north south transfers this book seeks to better understand the dynamics and diversity of interregional interactions this volume will appeal to scholars of global studies international political economy international relations human geography and development studies as well as area studies specialists who focus on latin america and africa
