this report considers recent developments in the political and security situation in iraq the prospects for political reconciliation at national and local level the progress in implementing security sector reform including the development of the iraqi army and police as well as the transition of basra to provincial iraqi control it also examines the changing role of uk forces in south eastern iraq as they prepare to hand over responsibility for security and assume the position of overwatch the report therefore examines what overwatch means and whether the force levels proposed by the government are sustainable it concludes that the security situation continues to cause concern and that although there has been a decrease in attacks against uk and coalition forces since the withdrawal from basra palace there has been no reduction in attacks against the civilian population the development of effective iraqi security forces is fundamental and although there has been progress with the army there are still murderous corrupt militia infiltrated elements within the police it is unclear how the trainers will be supported when the uk force levels are further reduced the plan is to reduce to 2 500 troops in spring but there are questions about the sustainability of a force of this size and whether they will be able to do little more than protect themselves in any person of advancing age i doubt he or she has never said knowing what i know now i wish i could live my life over again foolishness true but still it s a nice thought to linger over the story within this novel once again relates to that engaging wish we have two heroes in this novel and both are in the same person that made the writing difficult at times but i feel i made it work michael and barth begin as totally different people with different minds sets one is a good and decent man and the other cares little for others he gambles carouses with women of ill repute his curses would make a sailor blush and he at times hangs out with bottom feeders still there is something endearing about him and the two together make an interesting pair will this second life turn out differently than the first or does disaster wait i feel the characters are real and interesting and at times the reader will wonder who is controlling who as usual in my novels i have taken ordinary people and placed them in extraordinary situations i doubt that this story line has been used before in this manner and i do hope you enjoy one again
