battled through the years of oppression under authoritarian regimes to finally become a key and legitimate political actor fully updated edition with new chapter covering the arab spring and the parliamenatry and presidential elections from egypt and syria to tunisia and libya the brotherhood and its affiliates are now faced with the complex task of transforming themselves from semiclandestine opposition movements into legitimate political actors and in some cases into ruling powers this book is an indispensable resource for anyone looking to understand the muslim brotherhood qatar s role in promoting the group and the ideological social and religious factors that have led to its ultimate failure the book begins by looking at the birth of the muslim brotherhood mb in 1928 in egypt it then traces its ideology and expansion via the various affiliate organizations in the arab world as well as its international presence up to the present day throughout this historical analysis evidence is presented linking the mb again and again to political violence and a lack of a coherent policy the book weaves into this history the influence of qatari support a clarification of the division between true salafism and the mb s radical ideology an explanation of how jamal khashoggi was a living metaphor for this misunderstanding and the role the mb has played in various revolutionary movements throughout the middle east the book concludes with a current geopolitical outlook on the mb itself and the arab world in which it resides the book is extensively sourced with first hand primary source quotes from numerous exclusive personal interviews conducted by the author with both experts on the subject and officials in the region this book combines historical sociological and ethnographic research methods to provide a rich and multi faceted study of the muslim presence in ireland in its historical and contemporary dimensions saudi arabia influences american policy through both conventional and unconventional methods all due to the petro dollars that have been generated from america s addiction to foreign oil with chapters written by renowned experts this book uses first hand accounts to explore this vast influence this book provides an overview of the practice of islamic finance and the historical roots that define its modes of operation the focus of the book is analytical and forward looking it shows that islamic finance exists mainly as a form of rent seeking legal arbitrage in every aspect of finance from personal loans to investment banking and from market structure to corporate governance islamic finance aims to replicate in islamic forms the substantive functions of contemporary financial instruments markets and institutions by attempting to replicate the substance of contemporary financial practice using pre modern contract forms islamic finance has arguably failed to serve the objectives of islamic law this book proposes refocusing islamic finance on substance rather than form this approach would entail abandoning the paradigm of islamization of every financial practice it would also entail reorienting the brand name of islamic finance to emphasize issues of community banking micro finance and socially responsible investment mobilizing islam explores how and why islamic groups succeeded in galvanizing educated youth into politics under the shadow of egypt s authoritarian state offering important and surprising answers to a series of pressing questions under what conditions does mobilization by opposition groups become possible in authoritarian settings why did islamist groups have more success attracting recruits and overcoming governmental restraints than their secular rivals and finally how can islamist mobilization contribute to broader and more enduring forms of political change throughout the muslim world moving beyond the simplistic accounts of islamic fundamentalism offered by much of the western media mobilizing islam offers a balanced and persuasive explanation of the islamic movement s dramatic growth in the world s largest arab state antisemitism and anti zionism are complex delineable yet inter related social psychological phenomena while antisemitism has been described as an irrational age old prejudice anti zionism is often represented as a legitimate response to a rogue state drawing upon media and visual sources and rich interview data from iran britain and israel antisemitism and anti zionism representation cognition and everyday talk examines the concepts of antisemitism and anti zionism tracing their evolution and inter relations and considering the distinct ways in which they are manifested and responded to by muslim and jewish communities in iran britain and israel providing insights from social psychology sociology and history this interdisciplinary analysis sheds light on the pivotal role of the media social representations and identity processes in shaping antisemitism and anti zionism as such this provocative book will be of interest to social scientists working on antisemitism race and ethnicity political sociology and political science media studies and middle eastern politics knowledge of asian business is dominated by conventional wisdom much of which has achieved the status of myth bestselling author michael backman has researched beneath the surface to reveal the things that you need to know about asian business and society using a wealth of examples case studies and anecdotes he provides a revealing and unconventional picture based around key business themes business business culture and culture are entwined to draw the reader from the outside into becoming an asian insider written in the author s direct sharp style the asian insider is a fascinating read for anyone wishing to get to grips with asian business and understand how asia really works this book looks at the operation of indigenous charities at a regional localised and global level chapters focus on the adaptation accountability and operation of charities across a wide range of jurisdictions from china to indonesia thailand iran south africa sri lanka lebanon and turkey it examines the ownership participation and accountability of charities in a regional localised and international context and draws on the experiences and operation of charities by presenting a cross disciplinary exploration of the operation of charities the book offers an interesting insight into the functioning and identification of the influencing factors impacting the operation of charities this book provides valuable insights into the practical challenges faced by the nascent islamic finance industry and compares the australian experience to developments in the uk it contributes to a greater understanding of how muslims living as a minority in australia and the uk negotiate islamic doctrine in secular societies by focusing on one aspect of this negotiation namely the prohibition of ribā there is little debate in the islamic tradition on the prohibition of ribā the differences however lie in the interpretation of ribā and the question of how muslims live in a society that is heavily reliant on interest and conventional banking yet at the same time adhere to islamic guidelines through the words of religious leaders muslim professionals and university students imran lum provides real accounts of how muslims in australia and the uk practically deal with conventional banking and finance products such as home loans savings accounts and credit cards he also explores muslim attitudes towards islamic finance and queries whether religion is the sole determining factor when it comes to its uptake drawing on his own unique experience as a practitioner responsible for growing an islamic business in a conventional bank lum provides a firsthand account of the complexities associated with structuring islamic finance products that are not only sharia compliant but also competitive in a non muslim jurisdiction using şukūk bonds as a case study he highlights the tangible and non tangible barriers to product development such as tax and regulatory requirements and the rise of islamophobia combining academic and industry experience lum unpacks the relationship of islamic finance with muslim identity construction in the west and how certain modalities of religiosity can lead to an uptake of islamic finance while others can lead to its rejection the white lie is a translation for a fatwa in arabic al kedhb al abyad issued by theologian yusuf al qaradawi chairman for the european council for fatwa and research ecf al qaradawi and his companions are part of one of the biggest movements in the world the muslim brotherhood the book presents extensive research in the muslim brotherhood sources to understand the ideology and strategies of the movement from the most important primary sources and how it uses white lies to reach the aim of their strategies it also shows examples of the application of these strategies in the west with a documented study in sweden where the author relied on the documents of the archives of swedish government institutions the book contains over 800 footnotes the muslim brotherhood has according to one of the most prominent leaders in the movement yousef nada more than 100 million members all over the world it is a controversial movement since they have managed to advance all the way to governmental positions in many muslim countries and they have official and unofficial relations with many politicians and religious authorities all over the world at the same time it is singled out as one of the biggest greenhouses for terror organizations and terrorists published with aid from this book addresses the complexity of islam in thailand by focusing on islamic charities and institutions affiliated to the mosque by extrapolating through islam and the waqf islamic charity in different regions of thailand the diversity in races and institutions it demonstrates the regional contrasts within thai islam the book also underlines the importance of the internal histories of these separate spaces and the processes by which institutions and ideologies become entrenched it goes on to look at the socio economic transformation that is taking place within the context of trading networks through islamic institutions and civil networks linked to mosques madrasahs and regional power brokers brown casts this study of private islamic welfare as strengthening rather than weakening relations with the secular thai state the current regime s effectiveness in coopting these muslim elites including lutfi and wisoot into state bureaucracies assists in widening their popular base in the south in the north east and in bangkok such appointments were efficacious in reinforcing the elite s islamic identity within a modern secular literate and cosmopolitan thai culture in challenging existing studies of thai muslims as furtive protest minorities this book diverts our attention to how islamic philanthropy provides the logic and dynamism behind the creation of autonomous spaces for these independent groups affording unusual insights into their economic political and social histories in muslims in motion nazli kibria provides a comparative look at bangladeshi muslims in different global contexts including britain the u s the middle east and malaysia kibria examines international migrant flows from bangladesh and considers how such migrations continue to shape islamization in these areas having conducted more than 200 in depth interviews she explores how in societies as different as these migrant muslims in their everyday lives strive to achieve economic gains sustain community and family life and realize a sense of dignity and honor muslims in motion offers fresh insights into the prominence of islam in these communities especially an islam defined by fundamentalist movements and ideologies kibria also focuses on the complex significance of nationality with rich analyses of the diaspora the role of gender and class and the multiple identities of the migrants she shows how nationality can be both a critical source of support and also of difficulty for many in their efforts to attain lives of dignity by bringing to life a vast range of experiences this book challenges prevailing stereotypes of muslims charity is an economic act this premise underlies a societal transformation the merging of religious and capitalist impulses that mona atia calls pious neoliberalism though the phenomenon spans religious lines atia makes the connection between islam and capitalism to examine the surprising relations between charity and the economy the state and religion in the transition from mubarak era egypt mapping the landscape of charity and development in egypt building a house in heaven reveals the factors that changed the nature of egyptian charitable practices the state s intervention in social care and religion an islamic revival intensified economic pressures on the poor and the subsequent emergence of the private sector as a critical actor in development she shows how when individuals from egypt s private sector felt it necessary to address poverty they sought to make islamic charities work as engines of development a practice that changed the function of charity from distributing goods to empowering the poor drawing on interviews with key players atia explores the geography of islamic charities through multiple neighborhoods ideologies sources of funding projects and wide social networks her work shifts between absorbing ethnographic stories of specific organizations and reflections on the patterns that appear across the sector an enlightening look at the simultaneous neoliberalization of islamic charity work and islamization of neoliberal development the book also offers an insightful analysis of the political and socioeconomic movements leading up to the uprisings that ended mubarak s rule and that amplified the importance of not only the muslim brotherhood but also the broader forces of islamic piety and charity
