every new american president has a plan to bring about peace between the israelis and the palestinians and every one fails every peace process has failed in its primary objective to establish a stable and lasting accord between the two parties such that they can live together side by side in friendship rather than enmity but why and what can be done instead while this failure is a consistent pattern stretching back decades there is virtually no public discussion or even basic understanding of the primary reason for this failure the palestinian delusion is unique in situating the israeli palestinian conflict within the context of the global jihad that has found renewed impetus in the latter portion of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first briskly recounting the tumultuous history of the peace process robert spencer demonstrates that the determination of diplomats policymakers and negotiators to ignore this aspect of the conflict has led the israelis the palestinians and the world down numerous blind alleys this has often only exacerbated rather than healed this conflict the palestinian delusion offers a general overview of the zionist settlement of palestine the establishment of the state of israel and the arab muslim reaction to these events it explores the dramatic and little known history of the various peace efforts showing how and why they invariably broke down or failed to be implemented fully the palestinian delusion also provides shocking evidence from the palestinian media as well as statements from the palestinian leadership showing that negotiations between israel and the palestinians will never work but there is still cause for hope spencer delineates a realistic viable alternative to the endless and futile peace process that shows how the jewish state and the palestinian arabs can truly coexist in peace without illusions or unrealistic expectations encountering palestine unmaking spaces of colonial violence edited by mark griffiths and mikko joronen sits at the intersection of cultural and political geographies and offers innovative reflections on power colonialism and anti colonialism in contemporary palestine and israel organized around the theme of encountering and focusing on the ways violence and struggle are unmade in the encounter between the colonizer and colonized the essays focus on power relations as they manifest in cultural practices and everyday lives in anti colonial palestine covering numerous sites in gaza the west bank east jerusalem and israel encountering palestine addresses a range of empirical topics from marriage and queer aesthetics to policing demolition armament failure and violence the contributors utilize diverse theoretical frameworks such as hyperreality settler capitalism intimate biopolitics and politics of vulnerability to help us better understand the cultural making and unmaking of colonial and anti colonial space in palestine encountering palestine asks us to rethink how colonialism and power operate in palestine the ways palestinians struggle and the lifeways that constantly encounter unmake and counter the spaces of colonial violence the best sustained analysis of the intifada charles smith author of palestine and the arab israeli conflict despite the increasing volume of scholarship that shows children as political actors prior to this book a cohesive framework was lacking that would more fully examine and express children's relationship with political power rather than simply hitching children's resistance to standard theories of resistance heidi morrison seeks to meet children on their own terms through the case study of palestinian children contributors theorize children's resistance as an embodied experience called lived resistance a critical aspect of the study of lived resistance is not just documenting what children do but specifically how scholars approach the topic of children's resistance with lived resistance against the war on palestinian children the authors account for the vessel i e the body in flesh and mind through which such resistance generates and operates the diverse group of chapter authors examine palestinian children's art and media imprisonment parenting experiences bereavement neoliberalism refugee camps and protest movements as aspects of their collective and individual political power through these outlets the book shows consistencies and contends that these children's relationship to political power operates from an inclusive model of citizenship and is social justice oriented symbolically oriented and contingently based few doubt the pro israel bias of the western media it takes the form of overtly supporting israel's government policies or of maintaining neutrality or silence on issues of israeli violence occupation and settlement expansion scholar and activist karma r Chávez collects eleven interviews that allow dissenting voices a forum to provide rarely heard perspectives on the palestinian struggle for justice land and self determination this volume in the common threads series is a supplement to the journal of civil and human rights the conversations within took place on a radio program Chávez hosted from 2013-16 there journalists activists academic figures authors and palestinian citizens of israel shared a wide range of thoughts and experiences for much of her life like many westerners most of what pamela olson knew of the middle east was informed by headlines and stereotypes but when she traveled to palestine in 2003 she found herself thrown with dizzying speed into the realities of palestinian life fast times in palestine is olson s powerful deeply moving account of life in palestine both the daily events that are universal to us all house parties concerts barbecues and weddings as well as the violence trauma and political tensions that are particular to the country from idyllic olive groves to palestinian beer gardens from passover in tel aviv to ramadan in a hamas village readers will find olson s narrative both suspenseful and discerning her irresistible story offers a multi faceted understanding of the palestinian perspective on the israel palestine conflict filling a gap in the west s understanding of the difficult relationship between the two nations at turns funny shocking and galvanizing fast times in palestine is a gripping narrative that challenges our ways of thinking not only about the middle east but about human nature cultural identity and our place in the world this book draws lessons and conclusions based on the methodology outlined in the author s previous book water as a catalyst for peace routledge 2013 and further charts the course to a more practical framework for achieving regional stability and justice past agreements are examined and analysed outlining the change along the way that occurred to the land and people of palestine the book is written with the intention of exposing past events that led to the current situation evaluating the current state of the conflict in light of new circumstances and the reality on the ground viable options are explored to seek a practical and satisfactory negotiated settlement that ensures justice and viability in conclusion a roadmap for future direction is proposed to achieve equitable water allocation through proper negotiation between israel and palestine and to ultimately settle the conflict water resources allocation is at the heart of this pragmatic framework and roadmap the israeli palestinian conflict is the longest on going hot and cold war in the 20th and 21st century in this book the author argues that human rights standards are the key to a just and sustainable solution and that tragically no one has ever made serious use of them in trying to end the conflict the reader will have a comprehensive view of the conflict its relationship to surrounding world events and its similarities to and differences from other conflicts especially those embedded in american race relations this book critically assesses a series of complex and topical debates helping readers to make sense of the politics surrounding the israeli palestinian relationship each chapter considers one topic represented by two or three essays offered in conversation with one another together these essays advance different perspectives in some cases they are complementary and in others they are oppositional topics include scholarly and activist interpretations of narratives in the context of israel palestine the concept of self determination for jewish israelis and palestinians the debate over settler colonialism as an appropriate framework for interpreting the history of israel palestine and questions surrounding jewish and palestinian refugees and the impact of displacement among others through these foundational and contemporary topics readers will be challenged to critically examine the strengths and weaknesses of each position in light of scholarly debates rooted in social justice and helped to gain a deeper understanding of the relationship between israelis and palestinians in order to see a path forward toward justice for all this remarkable book tells the inside story of three young men caught up in the palestinian intifada through their stories the tangled and tragic web of the past twenty years of the most enduring conflict in the middle east unfolds before us for over a decade laetitia bucaille lived in the occupied territories for months at a time gaining rare access to the three militants she calls sami najy and bassam and many other palestinians they cross paths with those who grew up during the first intifada and whose lives became bound up with the second which erupted in 2000 the result is an intimate yet unsentimental portrait of daily life in the west bank and gaza from the mid 1980s to the present in a new afterword the author examines the social and political developments in the occupied territories since the book s publication in 2004 including the implications of yasser arafat s death and the challenges and opportunities presented to his elected successor mahmood abbas book jacket

dr jamil effarah tackles the struggle between palestinians and israelis in three volumes under the title think palestine that exposes series of articles addressing various issues regarding the complex struggle between palestinians and israelis based on developing events that took place involving the u s administrations and their policies of support for israel in the conflicts among palestinians arabs and israelis this volume iii is intended for those students teachers politicians executives policy makers and others who are interested or involved in the middle east affairs he interprets these events and policies as reflected by the last six years 2013 2018 dr effarah started writings since 1952 while student at the american university of beirut aub as an arab american independent thinker he judges events according to their merits while acting as a participant observer to the one sided american policy toward the middle east that serves the interest of israel he records and highlights the facts in an attempt to find the key to unlock the palestinian arab and israeli conflicts his personal feelings as a survivor of the palestinian holocaust of 1948 and his interpretations toward the proceedings representing a major part in the events that took place in that period to find solutions to the palestinians dilemma is to be fair to think palestine to think palestine is to understand how to find the real key to just solutions to the problems in that region dr effarah attempts to create a voice for arab americans to stand up and be counted and act as an integral part of the american society he keeps pressing for more arab participation in the political process for more transparency and for faster and farther reaching to the americans hearts and minds by trying to make them understand the arabs situations and arab christian patrimony culture and heritage dr effarah attempts to create an arab american balanced policy to reach americans and convince them that there are special interest groups and influential lobbyists in washington d c who misinform media and try to spin the story around while beholding to the fabricated israeli points of view to counterbalance the zionist efforts arab americans should think palestine and ask the american citizens to find answers to why the american citizens the taxpayers give money outright to israel more than 8 5 million per day according to the cia factbook in 2012 it also was upgraded to 8 9 million per day with president trump administration giving 3 3 billion in 2019
