what explains the peculiar intensity and evident intractability of the israeli palestinian conflict of all the hot spots in the world today the apparently endless clash between jews and arabs in the middle east seems unique in its longevity and resistance to resolution is this conflict really different from other ethnic and nationalist confrontations and if so in what way in this fully revised and updated third edition of his highly respected introductory text alan dowty demystifies the conflict by putting it in broad historical perspective identifying its roots and tracing its evolution up to the current impasse his account offers a clear analytic framework for understanding transformations over time and in doing so punctures the myths of an age old conflict with an unbridgeable gap between the two sides rather than simply reciting historical detail this book presents a clear overview that serves as a road map through the thicket of conflicting claims this newly expanded edition updates the analysis to include the latest developments and also integrates into the analysis a fuller account of the regional and international context of the conflict in this account the opposed perspectives of the two sides are presented in full leaving readers to make their own evaluations of the issues the book thus expresses fairly and objectively the concerns hopes fears and passions of both sides making it clear why this conflict is waged with such vehemence and why for all that there are some grounds for optimism an anthology of the most important documents on the domestic and foreign policy of the modern state of israel in relation to the rest of the middle east this book provides a holistic view of the conflict between israel and its arab neighbours and studies the global implications of their fraught relations focusing on the conflict from its beginning in the late 19th century the author provides a well rounded and balanced narrative by examining its religious ideological ethnic political national regional and international dimensions the volume covers a wide range of issues such as the conflicting historical legacy of the city of jerusalem jewish longing for a homeland the partition of palestine various wars and conflicts since 1948 palestinian resistance the arab boycott of israel and the abraham accords it also tackles the contested national claims and the refugee question and looks at various peace making efforts including the role of external stakeholders such as the us uk russia and india a comprehensive study of the arab israeli conflict the book is richly supported by a swath of references to materials documents maps and video links it will be an essential reading for students academics and teachers of politics and international relations national security geopolitics history military and strategic studies middle east studies conflict resolution and peace making the arab israeli conflict is fraught with political complexity it entails long standing entrenched views on the part of all the participants direct and indirect and is heavily charged with emotion it is a subject of great political and military actuality the middle east is fast becoming a testing ground for modern weapons systems and for modern conventional war doctrines a recent example being the yom kippur war most publications articles papers books on the war were produced while sentiments were still high and the armies still formulating their conclusions confusion controversy and emotions eclipsed clarity an international symposium was held two years after the war to objectively debate the war its lessons and the middle east conflict in general this book contains all of the speeches and papers presented at that symposium plus a record of three related events these were question and answer sessions with prime minister yitzhak rabin foreign minister yigal allon and jerusalem mayor teddy kollek these interviews along with the symposium contribute to an understanding of the middle east conflict and of the thinking and personalities of key figures in israeli life and politics contents and contributors opening ceremony shimon peres the art of war east and west saadia amiel uzi eilam amnon sella edward luttwak kenneth hunt moshe arens daniel shimshoni question and answer session teddy kollek military reporting in closed and open societies dina goren michael elkins arnon zuckerman superpower competition in the middle east abraham becker arnold horelick geoffrey kemp nissan oren haim bar kai haim shaked question and answer session yigal allon military balance of power in the middle east shimon shamir david kochav shlomo gazit yehezkel dror matityahu mayzel mor dechai gur meet the press yitzhak rabin the yom kippur war a review of the main battles in retrospect and their lessons benyamin telem binyamin peled david elazar haim bar lev former time magazine jerusalem bureau chief david aikman takes a sober balanced impactful look at the middle east bringing a journalist s mind and a believer s heart to his examination of a region aflame in this timely and informed exploration of current middle east issues that goes beyond headlines and sound bites aikman fills in the blanks for thoughtful christians accurately tracing recent history and fairly portraying the leaders who have made that history with a firm grasp on a biblical understanding of israel s past present and future he turns a critical eye on the political and religious policies of the region s prime players resorting neither to blind pro israeli sentiment nor to reactionary pro palestinian bias aikman challenges us to a uniquely christian approach to the middle east respect reason and love rather than unqualified tolerance on the one hand or religious crusading on the other

this book aims to bridge the scientific gap that exists with regard to palestine s membership of the un as a state as international law cannot operate outside the context of the global political atmosphere the book focuses on the international legal dimension as well as the political practical aspects of un statehood recognition with chapters written by leading international scholars this collection is directed to those concerned with the strengthening of international law and the un complex issues of representation and the confusing situation of citizenship given the multiple residential circumstances in which palestinians are forced to live are explored with unsurpassed clarity this invaluable contribution to the scholarly literature offers an ideal point of departure for understanding the core issues as they exist at this time in this volume dr qafisheh and eighteen other contributors go beyond the direct implications of palestinian statehood within the un to consider the prospects for a resolution of one of the longest conflicts in history the un statehood resolution of november 2012 reaffirms the two state consensus which increasingly seems to be a desert mirage without any prospect of being realized what self determination might mean in light of this background where the two state solution seems to be nearing the end of its sunset phase is explored in creative ways throughout the book the book consists of three parts part i presents the framework of palestine s un membership its legal and political foundations its implications for plo representation palestinian refugees and population status and its impact on concerned parties part ii focuses on selected issues that arise in relation to palestine s un membership including human rights humanitarian law international criminal law prisoners jerusalem water and the accession to the wto part iii connects the history with future solutions for palestinian israeli conflict this volume was produced to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the israel yearbook on human rights forty years have yielded an impressive forty annual volumes when it was started in 1971 the yearbook was the first of its kind anywhere in the world it has always understood its mandate as transcending the narrow borders of the discipline of either national or international human rights from the outset international humanitarian law and international criminal law were understood as coming within the proper framework of the yearbook as were on occasion articles on diverse freedoms that may seem out of bounds to a strict interpreter of the phrase human rights the present volume brings to the fore only one dimension of the yearbook namely essays twenty five of them are collected here twelve originally appeared in the first twenty issues of the yearbook and thirteen in the last twenty volumes offering a fair cross section of the literally hundreds of articles in the yearbook over time produced by authors from all over the world those chosen for inclusion in this anniversary volume were felt to most impressively tap the rich lode of legal research present insightful theses for intellectual discourse and argument and enhance the readers knowledge and understanding this book investigates relations between israel the palestinian territories and the european union by considering them as interlinked entities with relations between any two of the three parties affecting the other side the contributors to this edited volume explore different aspects of israeli palestinian european union interconnectedness in the war on error historian and political analyst martin kramer presents a series of case studies some based on pathfinding research and others on provocative analysis that correct misinformation clouding the public s understanding of the middle east he also offers a forensic exploration of how misinformation arises and becomes fact the book is divided into five themes orientalism and middle eastern studies a prime casualty of the culture wars islamism massively misrepresented by apologists arab politics a generator of disappointing surprises israeli history manipulated by reckless revisionists and american jews and israel the subject of irrational fantasies kramer shows how error permeates the debate over each of these themes creating distorted images that cause policy failures kramer approaches questions in the spirit of a relentless fact checker did israeli troops massacre palestinian arabs in lydda in july 1948 was the bestseller exodus hatched by an advertising executive did martin luther king jr describe anti zionism as antisemitism did a major post 9 11 documentary film deliberately distort the history of islam did israel push the united states into the iraq war kramer also questions paradigms the arab spring the map of the middle east and linkage along the way he amasses new evidence exposes carelessness and provides definitive answers
