nawal el saadawi s most recent play god resigns at the summit meeting created an uproar in her native egypt on the basis of the title alone officials declared the work heretical and charged el saadawi with insulting the almighty god not just islam her prosecutors requested that all her books be destroyed that she be arrested on return to egypt and her egyptian nationality be revoked in the play the prophets and great women gather for a meeting with god satan arrives to tender his resignation but neither jesus nor mohammad nor mooses are willing to replace him finally god himself resigns the second play in this collection is isis a critique of the discriminatory rules that control women the daughters of isis both god resigns and isis incorporate key themes to el saadawi s work that all religions are inimical to women and the poor that the oppression of women is reprehensible and not uniquely characteristic of the middle east or the third world and that free speech is fundamental to any society the chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the elijah interfaith academy address the subject of religious leadership the subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership as such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place what does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world to what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age one dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions studying the theme across six faith traditions christianity islam judaism sikhism hinduism and buddhism the future of religious leadership world religions in conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership contributors awet andemicael timothy j gianotti alon goshen gottstein anantanand rambachan maria reis habito meir sendor balwant singh dhillon miroslav volf good and evil embarks on a profound exploration of morality examining the intricate relationship between these forces across diverse religious and philosophical traditions the book delves into ethical systems showing how faith shapes our perception of right and wrong and how these concepts manifest in the battle between divine and demonic entities it challenges the common dualistic view suggesting that good and evil exist on a continuum influenced by cultural historical and individual contexts providing a nuanced understanding of moral ambiguity the book progresses systematically beginning with the historical origins of good and evil in ancient mythologies and religious doctrines it then analyzes the conflict between divine and demonic forces across faiths before focusing on faith s role in shaping morality by drawing from religious texts philosophical treatises and historical accounts good and evil provides a unique comparative analysis of religious traditions this approach encourages readers to critically examine their own beliefs and assumptions regarding morality and human values
