the first systematic global study of how christians respond to persecution presenting new research by leading scholars of global christianity the dreams has come in the final stage when i was a little boy in the years of struggling many soldiers many juniors senior military offices and politicians approached me to write a book i wonder why they approached me and there were many kids the war will take long time says officers we would not be alive and we are going to the war or frontline is a matter of death or life when we gone you will write a book for cost of our lives our memories and celebrations of lives because we have brought independence of south sudan through our dear blood they just told me you are young boy you have suffered with us as child soldier you will make it to a better school you will become professional man and next leader in south sudan and many authors didnt articulated how john garang mistreated some clans tribe in spla splm than he gone far to retained some politicians for longer time and executed military officers it was voluntary job you cant exploit soldiers that doing voluntary job and it is unacceptable in modern era the john garang was not elected through democracy channel he came through coup attempts and starting lock up his bosses he john garang appointed himself as chief prosecutor he executed many army officers for many years the 15 12 war in south sudan last years i just recalled what we discussed with elders than i have starting writing this book however john garang s wife she a masterminded of all human atrocities in both 1980s and 2013 of fuelling up the war that took lives of innocent civilians in south sudan sudans angels is a compilation of many topics it reflects how i see subjects and situations spiritually and organically it is a book fiercely passionate about human beings and our struggle as a people in this universe i am a story teller poet so in this book you will read stories monologues poetry and essays i enjoy the journey of writing poetry takes me on i coddle it then give it its blessing for it to stand on its own i have meticulously selected material that hopefully meets the readers expectations this book presents the background and history of genocide the key issues associated with this worldwide crime and the problems inherent in preventing its occurrence in 1948 the un general assembly adopted the convention on the prevention and punishment of the crime of genocide cppcg legally defining the crime of genocide for the first time amazingly the united states did not ratify this international agreement until nearly 40 years later when president reagan finally signed the genocide convention bill attempts to enforce international law against genocide did not begin until the 1990s genocide a reference handbook examines the antecedents of the term genocide in the mid 19th century and explains the current challenges of preventing or even stopping genocide including the nation state system and principles of state sovereignty the author documents how crimes of genocide have continued unchecked and asserts that a collective commitment to humanitarian intervention is the only way to address this ongoing problem this book is an attempt to review the state of the art in the fields of limnology and of marine biology in the sudan the need for it became apparent while we were doing some joint field work in the Nile valley and along the Red Sea coast we feel that several reasons justify its publication firstly a vast amount of information is being gathered year after year by the staff of the hydrobiological research unit of the university of Khartoum in conjunction with the faculties of medicine and agriculture of this university much of this information fails to find an outlet to the scientific literature secondly we did not want to restrict our book to the Nile valley the Nile is such a vital life artery to the Sudan that it has dominated limnological efforts in this country to the neglect of other geographical areas the same holds true for the field of marine biology which lags far behind despite the existence of a marine field laboratory at Suakin and a research institute at Port Sudan it is hoped that both will develop considerably in the near future the issues addressed in this rewarding book provide new insight into the way we conceive reflect and study the problems of political transformation and constitution making in Africa the study provides a refreshingly in depth analysis of the strengths and weaknesses of constitutional provisions for managing the challenges of race religion ethnicity citizenship civil liberties and civil military relations in Africa's transitional democracies tracing emerging trends in constitution making it blends the theory of constitutional democracy with case studies and defines the imperative of social justice the most authoritative anthology of Islamist texts this anthology of key primary texts provides an unmatched introduction to Islamist political thought from the early twentieth century to the present and serves as an invaluable guide through the storm of polemic fear and confusion that swirls around Islamism today Roxanne Euben and Muhammad Qasim Zaman gather a broad selection of texts from influential Islamist thinkers and place these figures and their writings in their multifaceted political and historical contexts the selections presented here in english translation include writings of ayatollah khomeini usama bin laden muslim brotherhood founder hasan al banna and moroccan islamist leader nadia yassine as well as the hamas charter an interview with a taliban commander and the final testament of 9 11 hijacker muhammad ata illuminating the content and political appeal of islamist thought this anthology brings into sharp relief the commonalities in islamist arguments about gender democracy and violence but it also reveals significant political and theological disagreements among thinkers too often grouped together and dismissed as extremists or terrorists no other anthology better illustrates the diversity of islamist thought the complexity of its intellectual and political contexts or the variety of ways in which it relates to other intellectual and religious trends in the contemporary muslim world explores various aspects of chiefly authority in south sudan from its historical origins and evolution under colonial postcolonial and military rule to its current roles and value in the newly independent country south sudan became africa s newest nation in 2011 following decades of armed conflict chiefs or traditional authorities became a particular focus of attention during the international relief effort and post war reconstruction and state building but traditional authority in south sudan has been much misunderstood institutions of chiefship were created during the colonial period but originated out of a much longer process of dealing with predatory external forces this book addresses a significant paradox in african studies more widely if chiefs were the product of colonial states why have they survived or revived in recent decades by examining the long term history of chiefship in the vicinity of three towns the book also argues for a new approach to the history of towns in south sudan towns have previously been analysed as the loci of alien state power yet the book demonstrates that these government centres formed an expanding urban frontier on which people actively sought knowledge and resources of the state chiefs mediated relations on and across this frontier and in the process chiefship became central to constituting both the state and local communities cherry leonardi is senior lecturer in african history at durham university a former course director of the rift valley institute s sudan course and a member of the council of the british institute in eastern africa published in association with the british institute in eastern africa shifting sovereignties explores practical manifestations of sovereignty from antiquity to the anthropocene taking a global history perspective and centring africa the middle east and asia it destabilises overly neat theoretical notions of the concept shifting sovereignties shows that in practice sovereignty is far from absolute perpetual indivisible or supreme rather it is fuzzy compromised fragmented and layered from these observations the authors derive a historical conceptualisation which makes change and contingency core aspects of the understanding of sovereignty rather than understanding sovereignty as a characteristic of individual states mihatsch and mulligan propose the notion of sovereignty regimes frameworks of legitimation enforced through mutual recognition these regimes are created and managed by more or less institutionalised structures which embody what the authors call system sovereignty sovereignty regimes and system sovereignty are like sovereignty itself continuously changing and contingent this process of change forms the core of the book shifting sovereignties thus contributes a practical historical perspective on a concept which is foundational in political science international relations and international law this timely collection brings together a wide variety of contributors from scholars and a psychiatric social worker to former refugees who were resettled in the united states and a mural artist to explore the current face of migration conflict while dramatic changes are taking place on the international scene and among the major powers africa continues to suffer from a multitude of violent conflicts the toll of these conflicts is monumental in terms of war damage to productivity scarce resources diverted to armaments and military organizations and the resulting insecurity displacement and destruction at the same time africans in response to internal demands as well as to international changes have begun to focus their attention and energies on these problems and are trying innovative ways to resolve differences by nonviolent means the outcomes of these attempts have urgent and complex implications for the future of the continent with respect to human rights principles of democracy and economic development in this book african european and u s experts examine these important issues and the prospects for conflict management and resolution in africa they review the scholarship in resolution in light of international changes now taking place addressing the undying internal causes of conflict they question whether global events will promote peace or threaten to unleash even more conflict the authors focus their analysis on the issues involved in african conflicts and examine the areas in need of the most dramatic changes they offer specific recommendations for dealing with current problems but caution that unless policymakers confront the security situation in africa further destruction to national unity and political and economic stability is imminent case studies and themes for further long term research are recommended after shattering the french armies in a lightning blitzkrieg campaign the germans turn their attention on gibraltar as part of their new mediterranean or strategic policy a concept based on overrunning egypt then moving east and south capturing the persian gulf area as well as all east africa in an alliance with france after moving their forces down through neutral spain they soon engage the powerful british fortress guarding the strait of gibraltar long a symbol of british power and dominance will the germans now succeed using their mighty luftwaffe to combat the british navy seize gibraltar and push on toward egypt with a view of conquering the persian gulf east africa and move into a position to outflank the powerful soviet union from the south or will the british with motorized infantry troops massive fleet and modern air force be able to halt the panzer units should they take gibraltar and stop them be the first to read about attempts by the french to get the aircraft carrier béarn home from martinique the huge naval battle between the british and french fleets and italian efforts backed up by their colonial troops to take the anglo sudan british somaliland and kenya with exciting land sea and air battles you will be held speechless and spellbound as you follow the heavy action and its suspense as everything unfolds before your eyes stoneman in the covert world of clandestine operations stoneman is the president's deniable expendable a ready reaction force that officially doesn't exist for this elite fighting team there's no glory just the knowledge that a successful mission means one less threat for the moment but now a traitor in America's military has made a deal that could alter the balance of power in the West Ramrod intercept it's the next step in silent invisible warfare and now the Ramrod intercept technology has fallen into the hands of America's most virulent enemies the head of a black ops U.S. military facility has made a deal with an exiled Sudanese general a monster willing to share the weapon's destructive capabilities with an army of terrorists in exchange for shock troops on his blood march to take Khartoum stoneman's grim three-way mission find the traitor stop a devastating coup and retrieve America's secret weapon the question of what constitutes norms for global justice is of considerable concern for all those interested in world peace and cooperation in order to define these global norms Jean Marc Coicaud while working at the United Nations University initiated a project centered around conversations with leading theorists and policy practitioners in global affairs conversations on justice from national international and global perspectives features world class authors and activists from around the world and from a variety of disciplines to discuss the central questions of justice at the national international and global levels made up of a compilation of dialogues this volume's unique format makes it highly accessible and even fun to read the insights and observations of these leading intellectuals and scholars provide a rich contribution to theories on how global justice might become

we live in an age of constantly shifting populations as immigrants and refugees seek a safe haven from war famine and poverty the healthcare of these dispossessed people is now a stark challenge not only in zones of conflict but in those wealthier countries that have offered sanctuary the book is based on the authors combined forty plus years of work as clinicians and teachers in refugee and immigrant health it is written with clinicians and students in mind and is thus practical yet theory based so it can be used in the field and as a teaching text it bridges physical health highlighting infectious disease risks mental health and spiritual issues and encompasses population specific information on history of immigration culture and social relations communications religions pregnancy and childbirth end of life issues and health screening it also details health beliefs and practices of 30 cultures from more than 40 countries comprehensively examines the theoretical and practical dimensions of local ownership in international peacebuilding uses nine case studies from different countries to explore the topic empirically will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding war and conflict studies development studies global governance security studies and ir customary law in the modern world is the study of a coherent and well established legal system which is now operating in the context of a modern nation state and therefore poised between remaining relevant and the threat of marginalization focusing on sudan the author places customary law in its historical and cultural context analyzing the fundamental and traditional values that underlie customary law and the impact of the war between the north and the south that lasted intermittently for half a century he deals with the substance of customary law covering a wide variety of areas family law property law torts and criminal liability drawing on interviews conducted with judges legislators and practicing lawyers on customary law and its future in the modern context the book challenges the development of customary law to build on the positives of tradition and the reform of its shortcomings particularly in the areas of human rights gender equality and the protection of children this book fills a gap in the literature on customary law and will be of great interest to anyone interested in law anthropology and politics this collection of first person accounts chronicles the experiences of 12 humanitarians who entered sudan illegally to variously provide food medical care and spiritual support to the besieged people of the nuba mountains a diverse group of men and women of various ages professions and religious beliefs the chroniclers describe in detail the tragedies of the current war in the state of south kordofan their own close calls with death and why they are committed to helping a little known group of people nuba civilians as the united nations the african union and all nongovernmental organizations are forbidden from crossing the border
