in racist love leslie bow traces the ways in which asian americans become objects of anxiety and desire conceptualizing these feelings as racist love she explores how race is abstracted and then projected onto asianized objects bow shows how anthropomorphic objects and images such as cartoon animals in children s books home décor and cute tchotchkes contemporary visual art and artificially intelligent robots function as repositories of seemingly positive feelings and attachment to asianness at the same time bow demonstrates that these asianized proxies reveal how fetishistic attraction and pleasure serve as a source of anti asian bias and violence by outlining how attraction to popular representations of asianness cloaks racial resentment and fears of globalization bow provides a new means of understanding the ambivalence surrounding asians in the united states while offering a theory of the psychological affective and symbolic dynamics of racist love in contemporary america tracking the effects of media content on the public is a difficult endeavor and media effects vary on a subject to subject basis to address this challenge the politics of persuasion employs a multifaceted mixed method approach to studying mass media and public attitudes anthony r dimaggio analyzes more than a dozen case studies covering us domestic economic policy and examines a wide range of theories of how bias operates in mass media with regard to coverage of these issues while some research claims that journalists are overly negative and biased against government officials some reveals that journalists favor citizens groups still other studies contend there is a liberal bias in the media a progovernment bias or a bias in favor of advertisers and business interests through his analysis dimaggio is the first to systematically examine all of these competing interpretations he concludes that reporters tailor stories to corporate and government interests but argues that the ability to manufacture consent from the public in favor of these elite views is far from guaranteed according to dimaggio citizens often make use of their own personal experiences and prior attitudes to challenge official narratives in passion for truth author and scholar fr juan r vélez painstakingly uncovers the life and work of blessed john henry newman in the story of his early years his family upbringing and university education and through his vast correspondence with family friends and colleagues vélez acquaints us with newman the loyal friend profound thinker prolific writer and holy priest a true catholic gentleman who can be admired and loved by all who love the truth newman was a talented but timid young man who often doubted his own competence but was to become one of the most influential teachers and writers of the 19th century starting life as a devout and promising anglican scholar he finished the race a faithful and unwavering catholic priest and cardinal to the disappointment of some of his closest friends and the great joy of many others his prominent position as an anglican clergyman and oxford don made his long anticipated conversion the subject of great interest to many of his contemporaries and once he crossed over to rome many anglicans followed his lead his clarity of thought as a scholar was such as is hardly seen in contemporary society and was even growing rare in his own day a relentless pursuit of wisdom did not allow him to simply store away his knowledge but urged him to conform his life to what was true wherever and whenever he discovered it this passion for truth did not always gain him friends but it ultimately gained him what he valued above all else a home in the true church of christ
