crumbled shells of mosques in iraq the bombing of british cathedrals in world war ii the fall of the world trade center towers on september 11 when architectural totems such as these are destroyed by conflicts and the ravages of war more than mere buildings are at stake the destruction of memory reveals the extent to which a nation weds itself to its landscape robert bevan argues that such destruction not only shatters a nation s culture and morale but is also a deliberate act of eradicating a culture s memory and ultimately its existence bevan combs through world history to highlight a range of wars and conflicts in which the destruction of architecture was pivotal from cortez s razing of aztec cities to the carpet bombings of dresden and tokyo in world war ii to the war in the former yugoslavia the destruction of memory exposes the cultural war that rages behind architectural annihilation revealing that in this subliminal assault lies the complex aim of exterminating a people he provocatively argues for the fatally intertwined experience of genocide and cultural genocide ultimately proposing the elevation of cultural genocide to a crime punishable by international law in an age in which frank gehry i m pei and frank lloyd wright are revered and yet museums and temples of priceless value are destroyed in wars around the world bevan challenges the notion of collateral damage arguing that it is in fact a deliberate act of war litigating war offers an in depth examination of the law and procedure of the eritrea ethiopia claims commission which was tasked with deciding through binding arbitration claims for losses damages and injuries resulting from the 1998 2000 eritrean ethiopian war after providing an overview of the war the authors describe how the commission was established its jurisdiction the sources of law it applied its treatment of nationality and evidentiary issues and the relief it rendered separate chapters then address particular topics such as the initiation of the war battlefield conduct belligerent occupation aerial bombardment prisoners of war enemy aliens and their property diplomats and diplomatic property and general economic loss a final chapter examines the lessons that might be learned from the experience of the claims commission especially with an eye to the establishment of such commissions in the future the volume includes a preface from james crawford and also reproduces all the key documents relating to the commission the bilateral agreement establishing the commission its rules of procedure and its numerous decisions and arbitral awards the analytical portion of the volume contains extensive cross references to these primary documents further a comprehensive table of contents and indexes relating to subject matter treaties and cases provide ready access to all the material contained within the massive intentional destruction of cultural heritage during the 1992 1995 bosnian war targeting a historically diverse identity provoked global condemnation and became a seminal marker in the discourse on cultural heritage it prompted an urgent reassessment of how cultural property could be protected in times of conflict and led to a more definitive recognition in international humanitarian law that destruction of a people s cultural heritage is an aspect of genocide yet surprisingly little has been published on the subject this wide ranging book provides the first comprehensive overview and critical analysis of the destruction of bosnia herzegovina s cultural heritage and its far reaching impact scrutinizing the responses of the international community during the war including bodies like unesco and the council of europe the volume also analyses how after the conflict ended external agendas impinged on heritage reconstruction to the detriment of the broader peace process and refugee return it assesses implementation of annex 8 of the dayton peace agreement a unique attempt to address the devastation to bosnia s cultural heritage and examines the treatment of war crimes involving cultural property at the international criminal tribunal for the former yugoslavia icty with numerous case studies and plentiful illustrations this important volume considers questions which have moved to the foreground with the inclusion of cultural heritage preservation in discussions of the right to culture in human rights discourse and as a vital element of post conflict and development aid in this era of globalization international law plays a significant role in facing rapid development of various legal issues cultural preservation has emerged as an important legal issue that should be considered by states this book consists of academic papers presented and discussed during the 9th international conference of the centre of international law studies 9th cils conference held in malang indonesia 2 3 october 2018 the title of the book represents the major theme of the conference culture and international law it is argued that along with globalization cultural preservation is slowly ignored by states various papers presented in the book cover five topics cultural heritage cultural rights culture and economic activity culture and armed conflict and a general topic the authors of the papers are outstanding academics from various countries lithuania united states of america australia thailand and indonesia the conference was organized by universitas indonesia in collaboration with brawijaya university this book aims to give a useful contribution to the existing literature on international law specifically focussing on cultural issues from the perspective of cultural heritage and rights economic as well as armed conflict the goldstone report of september 2009 started a critical debate at the international level the report raised serious allegations of grave violations of international law with regard to the israeli attack on gaza of 27 december 2008 18 january 2009 amounting to possible war crimes and crimes against humanity the un general assembly and the human rights council amidst high political pressure endorsed the report s recommendations calling for prompt and proper investigations to ensure accountability and justice for the victims given the lack of proper investigations at the national level international justice mechanisms are now needed indeed the icc opened a preliminary examination of the situation but difficulties arose because of the uncertain status of the occupied palestinian territory the issue of the existence of a state of palestine is extremely actual and still unsolved at the UN level with a foreword by Prof. William Schabas the book collects contributions by renowned international law professors as Eric David, John Dugard, Richard Falk and many other distinguished scholars and lawyers and brings together for the first time essential documentation on the Gaza conflict. The underlying question whether there is a court for Gaza can be seen as a test case for international justice and shed a light on the role of international institutions in the difficult combination of law and politics that connotes international justice useful for all those interested in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict such as international and criminal law scholars and human rights and humanitarian organizations.

This book studies how people negotiate difficult heritage within their everyday lives focusing on memory, belonging and identity. The starting point for the examination is that temporalities lie at the core of understanding this negotiation and that the connection between temporalities and difficult heritage remains poorly understood and theorized in previous research. In order to fully explore the temporalities of difficult heritage the book investigates places in which the incident of violence originated within different time periods: it examines one example of modern violence, Mostar in Bosnia and Herzegovina; one example of where the associated incident occurred during medieval times, the Gazimestan monument in Kosovo; and one example of prehistoric violence, Sandby borg in Sweden. The book presents new theoretical perspectives and provides suggestions for developing sites of difficult heritage and will thus be relevant for academic researchers, students and heritage professionals.

How can a nation's archaeological treasures help explain its history, especially one as richly complex as Syria's? Ross Burns chooses 40 among Syria's outstanding range of sites, accompanied by over 200 colour illustrations, to take the reader through the tangled paths of this crossroads of the Eastern Mediterranean where numerous world cultures intersected. Given the last 12 years of savage conflict, the author reports too on the plight of many of these monuments, addressing the common but unhelpful assumption that much of the country's archaeological treasures have been destroyed. A better approach is to recognise that Syria's heritage can play a role in the country's recovery and cannot simply be declared a write-off. This is a history which tells us much about how Syria's mixture of traditions defy simplistic categorisation through modern definitions of cultures and identities.

The Gaza Strip is among the most densely populated places in the world, more than two thirds of its inhabitants are refugees and more than half are under eighteen years of age. Since 2004, Israel has launched eight devastating operations against Gaza's largely defenseless population, thousands have perished and tens of thousands have been left homeless. In the meantime, Israel has subjected Gaza to a merciless illegal blockade. Norman G. Finkelstein presents a meticulously researched inquest into Gaza's martyrdom. He shows that although Israel justified its assaults in the name of self-defense, in fact these actions constituted flagrant violations of international law. He also documents that the guardians of international law, from Amnesty International and Human Rights Watch to the UN Human Rights Council, ultimately failed Gaza.

The idea of cultural heritage as an international public good can be traced back to the preamble of the 1954 Hague Convention for the Protection of Cultural Property in the Event of Armed Conflict, according to which damage to cultural property belonging to any people whatsoever means damage to the cultural heritage of all mankind. How this idea of cultural heritage as a global public good can be reconciled with the effective enforcement of protection norms is the subject of this study bringing together world experts in protecting cultural heritage enforcing international cultural heritage law examines the different ways that cultural heritage property can be protected including protection at the international level enforcement in domestic courts and the role of alternative dispute resolution mechanisms the book is divided into three sections the first section assesses international law and analyses the interaction between international and domestic norms of public and private law it discusses the different methods of international enforcement the role of international and mixed criminal tribunals and courts and the means for protecting cultural heritage in times of armed conflict the second section addresses the role of national courts discussing such topics as barriers to domestic enforcement of international norms the refusal to enforce foreign law the difficulty of territorial boundaries in relation to underwater heritage and the application of criminal sanctions by domestic courts the final section of the book surveys alternatives to the legal enforcement of the norms protecting cultural heritage including arbitration soft law and diplomacy born from the fields of islamic art and architectural history the archaeological study of the islamic societies is a relatively young discipline with its roots in the colonial periods of the late 19th and early 20th centuries its rapid development since the 1980s warrants a reevaluation of where the field stands today this handbook represents for the first time a survey of islamic archaeology on a global scale describing its disciplinary development and offering candid critiques of the state of the field today in the central islamic lands the islamic west sub saharan africa and asia the international contributors to the volume address such themes as the timing and process of islamization the problems of periodization and regionalism in material culture cities and countryside cultural hybridity cultural and religious diversity natural resource management international trade in the later historical periods and migration critical assessments of the ways in which archaeologists today engage with islamic cultural heritage and local communities closes the volume highlighting the ethical issues related to studying living cultures and religions richly illustrated with extensive citations it is the reference work on the debates that drive the field today united nations human rights council and provides the reader with the information essential to understanding the libyan conflict its causes and ramifications and the difficulties the country faces as it rebuilds in the wake of 40 years of repression and the effects of a brutal civil war the book provides a historical overview of the country and the ruinous policies of the qadhafi regime a chronological review of the evolution of the conflict a description of the belligerents and their organizational makeup an account of the nato intervention and its legality a basic legal characterization of conduct of the belligerents and the various accountability mechanisms pursued thus far and an appraisal of the post conflict period as well as a detailed factual assessment and legal characterization of ten different theaters of conflict including benghazi tripoli misrata sirte and the nafusa mountains this book is the reflection of cruelties against kaffir yazidis women and men by abu baker al baghdadi as he cited so many verses of quran and did accordingly in this book it has been described that how a terrorist used the jurisprudence for save his all evil deeds though according to the civil society rules these all activities can not be immune because these deeds are not bad as per some cult s jurisprudence which were following by the abu baker al baghdadi how such atrocities against kaffirs or non muslims can be certified as good naturally this the question it is still nit answerable any anybody though many scholars are also tried to hide such activities by their cunning approach but every thing is now crystal clear due ti information technology and in this book discloses all the irrelevant and anti human evil deeds which were committed by abu baker al baghdadi against kaffir or non muslim women in a nut shell we can not defend any ideology which is based on such type of stupidity in favour of certain group and coward people who have no dare to expose it so this is the tiny effort to expose the reality though some people suppose the abu baker al baghdadi was real hero as we have written in many quranic verses and jurisprudence he was hero according to this ideology though according to humanity he was a monster only to humiliate the people on the bases of cult and he did accordingly hate spreading and killing the innocent people on the bases of his jurisprudence of stupidity in dervishes and islam in bosnia ines ašćerić todd explores the involvement of sufi orders in the formation of muslim society in the first two centuries of ottoman rule in bosnia 15th 16th centuries c e using a wide range of primary sources ašćerić todd shows that sufi traditions and the activities of dervish orders were at the heart of the religious cultural socio economic and political dynamics in bosnia in the period which witnessed the emergence of bosnian muslim society and the most intensive phase of conversions of the bosnian population to islam in the process she also challenges some of the established views regarding ottoman guilds and the subject of futuwwa sufi code of honour
