climate migration as an image of people moving due to sea level rise and increased drought has been presented as one of the main security risks of global warming the rationale is that climate change will cause mass movements of climate refugees causing tensions and even violent conflict through the lens of climate change politics and securitisation theory ingrid boas examines how and why climate migration has been presented in terms of security and reviews the political consequences of such framing exercises this study is done through a macro micro analysis and concentrates on the period of the early 2000s until the end of september 2014 the macro level analysis provides an overview of the coalitions of states that favour or oppose security framings on climate migration it shows how european states and the small island states have been key actors to present climate migration as a matter of security while the emerging developing countries have actively opposed such a framing the book argues that much of the division between these states alliances can be traced back to climate change politics as a next step the book delves into uk india interactions to provide an in depth analysis of these security framings and their connection with climate change politics this micro level analysis demonstrates how the uk has strategically used security framings on climate migration to persuade india to commit to binding targets to reduce their greenhouse gas emissions the book examines how and why such a strategy has emerged and most importantly to what extent it has been successful climate migration and security is the first book of its kind to examine the strategic usage of security arguments on climate migration as a political tool in climate change politics original theoretical empirical and policy related insights will provide students scholars and policy makers with the necessary tools to review the effectiveness of these framing strategies for the purpose of climate change diplomacy and delve into the wider implications of these framing strategies for the governance of climate change

Dr. Jamil Effarah tackles the struggle between Palestinians and Israelis in three volumes under the title Think Palestine that exposes series of articles addressing various issues regarding the complex struggle between palestinians and israelis based on developing events that took place involving the u s administrations and their policies of support for israel in the conflicts among palestinians arabs and israelis this volume iii is intended for those students teachers politicians executives policy makers and others who are interested or involved in the middle east affairs he interprets these events and policies as reflected by the last six years 2013 2018 dr effarah started writings since 1952 while student at the american university of beirut aub as an arab american independent thinker he judges events according to their merits while acting as a participant observer to the one sided american policy toward the middle east that serves the interest of israel he records and highlights the facts in an attempt to find the key to unlock the palestinian arab and israeli conflicts his personal feelings as a survival of the palestinian holocaust of 1948 and his interpretations toward the proceedings representing a major part in the events that took place in that period to find solutions to the palestinians dilemma is to be fair to think palestine to think palestine is to understand how to find the real key to just solutions to the problems in that region dr effarah attempts to create a voice for arab americans to stand up and be counted and act as an integral part of the american society he keeps pressing for more american arab participation in the political process for more transparency and for faster and farther reaching to the americans hearts and minds by trying to make them understand the arabs situations and arab christian patrimony culture and heritage dr effarah attempts to create an arab american balanced policy to reach americans and convince them that there are special interest groups and influential lobbyists in washington d c who misinform media and try to spin the story around while beholding to the fabricated israeli points of view to counterbalance the Zionist efforts arab americans should think palestine and ask the american citizens to find answers to why the american citizens the taxpayers give money outright to israel more than 8 5 million per day according to the cia factbook in 2012 it also was upgraded to 8 9 million per day with president trump administration giving 3 3 billion in 2019

it is clearly obvious that in the united states limits are imposed on the palestinians right to speak on what the palestinians could or should not say platforms for an impartial palestinian discourse were extremely narrow to begin with and when any was available palestinians hardly took center stage for that purpose dr effarah kept writing weekly articles in arabic and english for the last twenty six years with one objectivethink palestine this third volume includes unpublished articles for the last three years 2012 2015 volume 1 includes the published articles from 2001 to 2006 while volume 2 includes articles from 2007 to 2012 dr effarah believes that the media discrepancies are far more pronounced the moral crisis in mainstream western media on the subject of palestine requires volumes and much has indeed been written about it his writings are based on developing events that took place in the last seventy years of his own experience since he was uprooted from his home in haifa palestine in 1948 along with his community such change in his life caused him to be involved in the politics of the middle east dr effarahs articles on think palestine have a propensity to find solutions to the palestinian dilemma while waiting for a form of a peaceful settlement between the palestinians and the israelis the struggle in palestine requiresand in fact demandsglobal solidarity a critical mass of a support base that is enough to turn the tide against the violent israeli occupation incorporating governments and companies that currently support sustain and bankroll israels daily crimes against palestinians there were not enough palestinian intellectuals around to speak for themselves and are capable of enunciating the palestinian experience or that the struggle of palestine is part of a larger battle against imperialism today theres a massive shift that the internet and social media has brought about a change in understanding the truth about palestine being occupied by intruders coming from the four corners of earth to fulfill a fallacy of certain myth that a certain god promised the land of palestine to the jews however the frame of mind that neglected or avoided the palestinian narrative has not been defeated completely in the western world as long as the appreciation of the authenticity of the palestinian narrative to the central discourse of the palestine israel conflict at every available platformbe it political academic cultural artistic or in the mediais not comprehended dr effarah attempts to create a voice for arab americans to stand up and be counted and act as an integral part of the american society and help americans understand the
